Stability of single tooth implant after autologous dentin grafting

Case description: Tooth #36 was extracted because of perforated root. The socket was grafted and during 5 month a permanent restoration on implant was accomplished.

Result: Autologous dentin graft allows shorter healing period and high stability of implant.

Dr. Gideon Hallel DMD MPA