Press Release

Illuminated Myth Publishing Announces the Release of Revealing Hannah The Myth of Cassandra

Chelmsford, MA, April 15, 2013 - Illuminated Myth Publishing is proud to announce Revealing Hannah The Myth of Cassandra by new author Laura Fedolfi available in bookstores and online on May 1st, 2013.

In Revealing Hannah The Myth of Cassandra our hero Hannah is a week away from graduating and all she has to do is make it across campus in high heels without falling over, turn in her senior thesis, and meet Carl, her very nice boyfriend, for dinner with his rather awful parents. A straightforward plan. What could possibly go wrong?

Unfortunately for her, quite a bit. The Greek gods she'd studied in school are about to put a major wrinkle in her carefully crafted future. Though the Olympians are no longer worshiped, they are immortal and need to make their way in the modern world. Apollo, god of the Sun, meets a publicist who convinces him that the time is ripe for a comeback, complete with a marketing strategy for re-branding himself. All he needs is a descendant of Cassandra's.

Laura Fedolfi has always been fascinated at how people create stories for their lives, and how new ideas can be revealed when you introduce alternative frameworks for understanding. After following this interest through dual degrees in Philosophy and English at Wesleyan University, Laura pursued a Master's Degree in Conflict Analysis and Resolution from George Mason University with a focus on complex problem solving. Everyone has a perspective which shapes their story, and Laura found that in helping people reframe their stories, they found room for alternative solutions. She brings this passion for reframing to her fictional characters by juxtaposing ancient myths with modern situations. When Laura isn't immersed in the crazy world of Greek gods in everyday life, she can be found helping others create their life stories through her work with Habitat for Humanity, her faith community and as founding member of the Society of Independent Publishers and Authors (SIPA.) She's on social media as Facebook.com/RevealingHannah and on Twitter @LauraFedolfi and loves hearing from her readers.

Illuminated Myth is a micro-publishing house specializing in serial works of fiction that mine the riches of myth and superstition to bring new stories to light.
