10 Minute Play Writing Workshop

NNPF Artistic Director Michael Halfin teaches you how to write an impactful ten-minute play that will catch the eyes of producers and engage audiences. Learn how to find an idea, create dynamic characters, and tell an important story! Michael will have you writing on Day 1 and you'll see your work performed in a staged reading the very next day!
$25/person. Register at newtix.ca

Staged Reading: If the Shoe Fits

by Genevieve Adam

"A deconstructed Cinderella farce with a decidedly feminist bent!"

Originally produced by NNPF as a ten minute play in 2018, If the Shoe Fits has been developed by playwright Genevieve Adam as a 60 minute, hilarious comedy. This is a "staged reading" performance.

Admission is pay what you can, space is limited. Contains mature language and situations.

Staged Reading: Making Friends

by Guy Newsham

"A lonely loser finds that making friends is not nearly so hard as he can imagine"

Originally introduced as part of NNPF's Playwrights Reading Series in 2018, playwright Guy Newsham has been working with director/dramaturge Chelsey Fawcett to develop this charming little piece into a fully realized one act comedy. This is a "staged reading" performance.

Admission is pay what you can, space is limited.
