New Rabbi Inducted at Weybridge Synagogue

North West Surrey Synagogue welcomed over 300 guests on Sunday, 14 January 2018 for the Induction of Rabbi Kath Vardi, the largest attendance ever at the shul.

Distinguished guests included the Mayor of Elmbridge, local clergy from several religions, representatives from the Movement for Reform Judaism, Liberal Judaism, Leo Baeck College and other rabbis. Also present were many founding members and their families, celebrating the start of a year of festivities marking the synagogue's 50th Anniversary.

The induction programme featured reflections and wishes to Rabbi Kath from NWSS' four previous rabbis, including Rabbi Dr David Zucker and Rabbi Fred Morgan.

Following welcome remarks by Chairman Ian Lancaster, a short Study in Chevruta was led by Rabbi Josh Levy, who ordained Rabbi Kath and is the Rabbi at Alyth Gardens. Rabbi Levy also led the Mincha Service, with singing support from Rabbi Hannah Kingston, a classmate of Rabbi Kath's at Leo Baeck College.

Rabbi Kath was inducted by Rabbi Professor Tony Bayfield CBE, the rabbi at NWSS from 1968 – 1982, Rabbi Dr Deborah Kahn-Harris, the principal at Leo Baeck College, Rabbi Dr Charles Middleburgh, the Dean and Director of Jewish Studies at Leo Baeck College and Rabbi Dr Jacqueline Tabick, Convenor of the Reform Beit Din and the rabbi at NWSS from 1998-2013.

Rabbi Dr Middleburgh injected some humour into the solemn induction by paraphrasing Rudyard Kipling's poem 'If', noting that Rabbi Kath 'should always have a grip on the situation', and if she didn't, any of these four rabbis would help her get one.

Rabbi Kath gave the Closing Blessings and the event ended with a lavish tea.

Ian Lancaster said that it was a delight to see the synagogue so full and hoped that it wouldn't be another 50 years before this happened again. "It was an honour to have three of the College's senior staff and two of our previous rabbis (Rabbi Bayfield is both) to induct Rabbi Kath," he said. "This was an indication of the high regard she is held in by her teachers and colleagues, as well as the strong connections our community retains with its previous rabbis."

Is Privacy a Luxury or Necessity

The Woking Debates kicked off with their first debate on Sunday 20th January at Christ Church in Woking where Helen Bayliss from Surrey Police and Griff Ferris from Big Brother Watch debated on the subject.

Helen explained what sort of data is held by the police, restrictions that the police officers have and certain data is deleted currently after 2 years but soon it will be deleted after 1 year.

Griff spoke about privacy and the lack of it due to the Government and other agencies holding peoples personal information. He mentioned the thousands of camera's across the country that scan car registrations and other data which is held without people knowing about it. He also gave an example of 'where it went wrong' and an innocent person's life was turned upside down. More information: <https://bigbrotherwatch.org.uk/>

There were strong points raised on both sides leaving the audience to decide on the balance between security and excessive private information being held.

The Woking Debates Team have organised further debates, details available on page 7 of this newsletter. More information also available at: www.wokingdebates.com

Faith in the Courts

On Tuesday 30th January, the Elmbridge Multi Faith Forum invited Judge Georgina Kent to talk about faith issues in the courts at Sacred Heart Church in Cobham. Judge Georgina referred to article 9 of the Human Rights Act and freedom of religion. She explained how accommodating the courts are in terms of ones faith for example, a witness can choose which Holy Book he/she wishes to make an oath on and the officers are aware of the sensitives or how to treat the Holy Books. Trials can sometimes take a long time, courts allow time for prayers or for people to attend religious services.

Judge Georgina gave some examples of faith related cases, one of which was an attack on Kingston Mosque on 11th November 2010 where approximately 30 men aged 25-30 threw bottles, sticks, broke glass, urinated on the premises and placed bacon at the Mosque to offend Muslims. Three individuals were convicted and the others could not be identified via the CCTV footage.

She also gave an example of how powerful faith is and how it can be abused by religious leaders; a man claimed to be a Prophet and persuaded people to give money to him to enter into the Kingdom of God. Between the people donating it was a total of £200,000 from which some people ended up in serious debt. He was proven to be a fraudster and given 5 years in prison.

Attendees were given plenty of time to ask questions. It was a very educational evening and a lot of interest from the attendees.

Holy Trinity Visit Shah Jahan

On Saturday 13th January, members of the Holy Trinity Church Bramley along with the Vicar, Revd Vicki Burrows and some students from St Catherine's School visited the Shah Jahan Mosque in Woking. This was a follow up from a talk held at the Church 'The True Face of Islam'. The group was given a guided tour, observed the congregational prayer and asked questions to the Head Imam, Hafiz Hashmi, who recited a short prayer for them in Arabic.

Holy Trinity, in keeping up the momentum of interfaith work, have also planned another interfaith event, '3 Women, 3 Faiths', where Revd Vicki Burrows (Christian), Kauser Akhtar (Muslim) and Meeta Joshi (Hindu) will speak on Friday 2nd March 2018.

WPOF Members Tea

Woking People of Faith (WPOF) organised an event for people who have helped them at various events to thank them for their time and effort, on Saturday 3rd February at St Dunstan's Church Woking.

The new structure of WPOF was explained by Philip Goldenberg followed by a brief summary of some of the events WPOF have organised in the past from the Chair of WPOF, Simon Trick.

Marian Nash, Secretary of WPOF invited people to continue their support by volunteering for various projects led by the 'Events Committee'. More information: www.wpof.org.uk

Surrey Muslim Association AGM/ Substance Misuse Awareness Event

Over 70 people attended Surrey Muslim Association's (SMA) first AGM on Sunday 4th February at the Lakeview Community Centre in Horsell.

David Munro, Surrey Police Crime Commissioner was invited as a guest speaker along with Craig Matthews and Becky Beauchamp from Surrey Police to talk about police procedure in terms of drugs, the law and harmful effects of drugs. There were plenty of questions from the attendees about tackling the issue of drug misuse.

A representative of Tell MAMA, the online hate crime reporting service spoke briefly about what they do; a number of people in the audience had been victims of hate crime. Reporting of each incident was stressed at the event to identify particular problematic areas and/or to provide support to victims.

The event concluded with a buffet meal. For more information: www.surreymuslims.org
