

Bellringers for the week of October 20-24

Monday-(Capitalization-7, Punctuation-4, Spelling/Grammar-0)

herbert hoover died at the age of 90 on october 20 1964 he was the 31st president of the united states he was president during the economic depression of the 1930s

Tuesday-(C-7, P-7, S/G-1)

alfred nobel was born on october 21 1833 he invented dynamite and had 355 patents for his many inventions in his will he leaved money to award nobel prizes to scientists writers and peacemakers

Wednesday-(C-12, P-4, S/G-3)

general sam houston becomed the first president of the republic of texas on october 22 1836 this was before texas becomed a part of the united states there is a city in texas named for him

Thursday-(C-6, P-5, S/G-0)

the famous brazilian soccer player named pele was born on october 23 1940 he played soccer for 22 years and scored 1281 goals during his career he encouraged many children all over the world to play soccer

Friday-(C-11, P-10, S/G-3)

on october 24 1901 a daring women named anna edson taylor road inside a barrel over niagara falls during this adventure she feel 158 feets when rescuers got to anna she said nobody ought ever do that again