

Bellringers for the week of December 1-5

Monday-(Capitalization-10, Punctuation-7, Spelling/Grammar-0) on december 1 1955 an african-american woman named rosa parks was arrested because she wouldnt give up her seat on a city bus to a white person african americans in montgomery alabama decided to boycott the buses until they were treated fairly

Tuesday-(C-8, P-8, S/G-2)

david macaulay was born on december 2 1946 he is a childrens book author and illustrator who has all ways been interested in the way things work some of his books our cathedral, city, and pyramid

Wednesday-(C-8, P-5, S/G-2)

illinois became the 21st state on december 3 1818 it has the sixth higher state population in the united states it's largest city is chicago but the capital is springfield

Thursday-(C-15, P-12, S/G-1)

happy birthday walt disney disney was born on december 5 1901 in chicago illinois he studied art and moved to hollywood to make movies such as mary poppins peter pan and fantasia

Friday-(C-13, P-4, S/G-1)

on december 6 1941 franklin delano roosevelt made a personal appeal for piece to emperor hirohito of japan roosevelt was trying to keep the united states out of world war II