BBC Children in Need Day

Today it has been the annual BBC Children in Need Day. Pupils and staff paid £1 to come to school in pyjamas and/or spotty clothes. Buns and Pudsey Bear bracelets were also sold. All proceeds are going directly to this extremely worthy cause.

Anti-Bullying Week

This week is Anti-Bullying week. At Stepney, we take bullying very seriously. If there are any issues regarding behaviour or bullying that your child brings to you, please contact us immediately so we may address this swiftly

Parents Join Us for Dinner

At lunch on Wednesday, we were joined by some of our Reception pupils' parents. This was a huge success and we hope to invited some other parents soon

Growth Mindset Learning Muscle this week was 'Don't Give Up' Next Week: 'Cooperate'

New Doors in EYFS

Our long-awaited partition doors have finally arrived in EYFS. They were fitted over the weekend. These will allow us to separate the nursery and reception classes at some points of the day. One section of the doors is going to be replaced in a few weeks. There should have been a smaller door in the middle section but there was apparently a problem with the machine that manufactures this.

Mr Jatta shares his MBE story with pupils.

Last week, we were delighted to report that one of our parents has been presented with the MBE by the Princess Royal at Buckingham Palace on 31st October for his work with Recycling and Energy saving. Mr Dawda Jatta joined us in assembly on Tuesday morning to tell the children about the work that he had done to earn this prestigious award. He also told us about the amazing time he had at Buckingham Palace. We are all very proud of him.
