Joe Hayes

After a three year stint working for Howard Pitzer with the famous horse, Two Eyed Jack In Ericson, Nebraska, Joe started in the reining horse business in the mid 1970's by working for "Mr. Reining Horse", Bob Loomis. During that time, Bob was at the top of his game with reining horses and won four out of the seven NRHA Futurities that Joe and Bob went to, with Joe also placing 9th in the Open Futurity. Joe opened his own successful reining horse business in Gainesville, Texas, in 1983 and still resides there. Joe has made the Open Finals at the NRHA Futurity, Derby, NRBC and the AQHA World Show. In addition to showing, Joe has judged multiple times the NRHA Futurity, Derby, The NRBC, the AQHA Open & Youth World Shows and many of the top reining competitions in the world. Judging reining horses and giving clinics has taken Joe to over 20 foreign countries, including such interesting place as Brazil, Israel, Japan, Australia, England, The Czech Republic, Mexico, Chile, Columbia, Panama, Costa Rica and all of the western European countries.
