OVERVIEW

Fatima Al-Fihri Open University is an international non-profit educational institution established online in Feb, 2016. Since then, it has been growing at an incredible pace. Currently, we are a team of multinational youths working in various countries worldwide and passionately committed to our goal of creating an inclusive learning environment that elevates our students and gives meaning to their educational experiences. Thus, we are offering open and accessible tools for the university level education of individuals worldwide who have earned their high school diploma, regardless of age, country, educational or cultural background. Since almost all the UN and development entities consider education a crucial driver of development, we envision an abundant, developed world in which individuals can easily access higher education. We are confident that with our tireless, diligent work, and the support of inspired others towards the Sustainable Development Goal of "equitable quality education and promote lifelong learning opportunities for all" our vision can be achieved.

We will continue to transform lives through education without over emphasizing on eligibility requirements, building on our success and delivering our mission in a changing world. We aim to provide a flexible education system that can be accessed by anyone interested in pursuing their studies at university level by taking advantage of the Internet and modern technology available to us; thus, our slogan "A New Generation of Education".
