

CARIBBEAN
CENTER FOR ORGANIZATIONAL Excellence

Jerry DaC Blenman, Executive Director of the Caribbean Center for Organizational Excellence, Jerry DaC Blenman, Executive Director of the Caribbean Center for Organizational Excellence, is an experienced banker, financial analyst, organizational development and change management specialist. He holds a Master's Degree in Financial Services Management from the University of Surrey, London, Professional Diplomas in Banking and Credit Union Management and is a Fellow of the Life Management Institute.

His wealth of experience, exceeding 30 years in several technical, senior management, advisory and directorship capacities, together with his knowledge, skills and wealth of experience in financial planning, business diagnostic assessments, process improvements, performance management and organizational transformation, has positioned him to be a key contributor to institutional reform and capacity building efforts within and beyond the Caribbean.

His role as an experienced mentor and trainer has been pivotal to assisting both public and private sector entities within the Caribbean and as far as Africa, achieve a range of people development strategies. He is the recipient of the Youth Entrepreneurship Scheme's award from the Government of Barbados, for his contribution to the training and development of Young Entrepreneurs in Barbados.

Mindful of challenges confronting varying sized organizations, particularly within the Caribbean, he augmented his organizational advisory and development services in 2012 with the founding and establishment of the Caribbean Center for Organizational Excellence to better understand and help organizations confront and mitigate the risk of compromise and failure, while enabling them to build platforms of excellence, high performance and global competitiveness.

Jerry, a past president of the Caribbean Institute of Certified Management Consultants and keynote speaker, is also author of Beyond the Minimum: The Blue Book of Principles for Optimizing Organizational Excellence and Achieving High Performance.