

Spring Show - 25th April 2018

1. A patio container of mixed spring flowers.
2. A bowl of Primulas, any species. Bowl not exceeding 300mm.
3. A Hippeastrum in a pot.
4. A vase of spring flowers with foliage, home grown. Exhibitors' vase.
5. An arrangement in a basket(does not have to be home grown)
6. Three Rhododendron flower heads displayed on a board.

The J.Ferguson memorial trophy to be awarded to best exhibit from sections 1 to 6.

7. Two vases of Daffodils/Narcissi. One vase self colour, one vase bi-colour, 3 stems per vase.
8. One vase of cut Daffodils/Narcissi, three stems, each a different cultivar/species.
9. Five stems of cut dwarf Daffodils/Narcissi, same cultivar/species.

The Alan Unwin trophy to be awarded for most points in cut Narcissi. Classes 7, 8, 9.

10. Five stems of Tulips same species/cultivar.
11. Two vases of Tulips, three stems, different cultivar/species per vase.

The Win Hannah trophy to be awarded for most points in cut Tulips. Classes 10 and 11.

12. Two pots of dwarf bulbs, one pot Tulips, one pot Narcissi.
13. One pot of any dwarf bulb excluding Tulip and Narcissi.

The Tom Brown Memorial Trophy to be awarded for most points for bulbs in pots. Classes 12 and 13.

14. A photograph postcard size, mounted, not framed. Subject - 'Bursting into bloom'
15. Three pieces of Parmesan and Rosemary shortbread.

Recipe

95g plain flour

100g grated Parmigiano Reggiano

100g salted butter (chopped)

1 tablespoon of chopped fresh Rosemary to serve

Preheat oven to 180°C

Method - place flour and butter in a bowl using fingers rub butter into the flour to form a crumbly dough. Add in the parmesan and rosemary. Roll the dough into a cylinder making sure each end is flat, wrap in cling film twisting the ends to form a seal. Refrigerate for at least 60 minutes. Line a tray with greaseproof/ parchment paper. Use a sharp knife and cut into approx. 7mm rounds. Place biscuits on tray about 2cm apart. Bake for 10 - 13 minutes, remove when pale gold at edges. Cool before serving.

Pots not to exceed 225mm.

Oasis and vases for entries will be available in the foyer between 5.45 and 6.45pm.

Judging will begin at 7pm prompt.

Stewards will be in the foyer to help with exhibiting.