Heading of Readings: Sixth Easter Sunday Year C

First: Acts 15:1-2,22-29

The church chose Judas and Silas to accompany Paul and Barnabas to Antioch to resolve a problem .

Psalms 66:

Let all the peoples praise you O God / O God be gracious and bless us / Let the nations exult and be glad.

Second: Apocalypse 21:10-14. 22-23

John is shown a vision of the holy city, which is lit by the radiant glory of God.

Gospel: John 14:23-29

Jesus said "If anyone loves me, he will keep my word ... I have said these things, but the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send will teach and remind you. My peace I bequeath to you - I am going away.

Themes:

The radiance of God. Christ's legacy to us. Peace. Looking forward to Pentecost / the Holy Spirit which will guide the church.

As well as continuing the Easter themes of resurrection, life out of death, rejoicing, eternal life, love, alleluia.

FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS: BISHOP JOSEPH DEVINE

The Mortal Remains of Bishop Emeritus Joseph Devine will be received into the Diocesan Offices in Coursington Road on Sunday 2nd June at 9.00 am to allow the faithful to pay their respects.

His remains will be received into the Cathedral of Our Lady of Good Aid for the Service of Vigil and Reception that same day at 5 pm.

The Requiem Mass will take place in the Cathedral on Monday 3rd June at 12 noon, with interment afterwards in the Cathedral grounds.

After the interment, refreshments will be served in St Bride's Hall.

TRIBUTES:

Tributes have been paid to Bishop Joseph Devine, former Bishop of Motherwell, who died on Thursday 23 May at Wishaw General Hospital, aged 81.

Bishop Hugh Gilbert, President of the Bishops' Conference of Scotland said:

"On behalf of the Bishops' Conference of Scotland I would like to offer Bishop Devine's family our deepest and most prayerful sympathies. During his active years as a bishop, he made a lasting and significant contribution to work of the Bishops' Conference. I will pray for the repose of his soul and celebrate Mass for him today (Friday 24 May)."

"We ask God to grant him eternal rest after his distinguished ministry as a priest and bishop in Scotland – and give thanks for all that he did for the Church in our country over the past 59 years of his priesthood. May God rest his soul."

Bishop Joseph Toal, Bishop Devine's successor as Bishop of Motherwell said:

"All in the Diocese of Motherwell feel the sadness of the death of our Bishop Emeritus, Rt Rev Joseph Devine, yesterday evening. He served as Bishop of Motherwell for 30 years, and for 6 years before that as Auxiliary Bishop of Glasgow Archdiocese, so we acknowledge and give thanks to God for his faithful and very full ministry as a bishop and priest."

"I heard of the news of his death in Wishaw General Hospital as I was about to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation, something which Bishop Devine celebrated hundreds of times, and it is for this that many in the Diocese remember him best. Through his years as Bishop, Bishop Devine served the Catholic Church in Scotland through his full participation and valued contribution to the work of the Bishops' Conference of Scotland, particularly in regard to Catholic Education."

"Although he was very ill through the last days of his life he was still very alert and very much himself. I suspect he would have liked to have lived another couple of days to know the outcome of Saturday's Scottish Cup Final. I thank those who nursed him through his last week on earth and those who attended to him at home through the years since his retirement. We commend his soul to God and look forward to celebrating his Funeral and giving thanks for all he offered to the Lord and his people as Priest and Bishop. May he rest in peace."

Archbishop Leo Cushley, Archbishop of St. Andrews & Edinburgh and a former priest of the Diocese of Motherwell said;

"I will always remember Bishop Joseph Devine with affection and respect. He was a generous and wise pastor of souls and as a young priest I learned a great deal from him. He dedicated himself generously to celebrating Word and Sacrament, especially among the young people of Motherwell, and we owe him a great debt of gratitude. May he rest in peace"

Thank You to the Eucharistic Ministers and Readers Parish who attended the Retreat led by Fr Bobby Kane on Tuesday 21st May at 7 pm in St Benedict's Blessed Sacrament Chapel.
It was very thought provoking and prayerful.
