GDPR : Listing names of sick people on parish bulletins

To try and clarify the position on the listing the names of the sick on parish bulletins, the latest advice we have is that names of the sick can be put on bulletins as there is a 'legitimate interest' for the parish to do so but if the bulletin is posted to a website there is no 'legitimate interest' and therefore names must be removed.

I hope that clarifies the position in some way for you.

Eddie Tarrier

Eddie is anxious that everyone is aware of how grateful he is for the great support he has received through visits, cards and prayers during his recent illness. His daughter Margaret confirmed that he is doing well after his operation and continued support is much appreciated.
