Advent is not as strict as Lent, and there are no rules for fasting, but it is meant to be a period of self-preparation. The purple colour associated with Advent is also the colour of penance. The faithful should fast during the first two weeks in particular and receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Universal Credit now rolled out in East End of Glasgow:

As of 15th December Universal Credit is being rolled out in Shettleston Job Centre which covers this area, anyone new claiming benefits will now have to apply for Universal Credits which incorporates 6 existing benefits including: Income Support, Housing Benefit, Child Tax Credits, Working Tax Credits, Income Based JSA Income related ESA. If you have a change of circumstances, for example, have another child, move house or move into work you may now have to change over to Universal Credits.

For many people applying for UC can be quite complex and it has to be done online. From the word go you have to make sure you have all the relevant information needed for the claim at hand, if not it can delay your start date of payment.

If any of our parishioners are single parents who will be involved in claiming UC they can contact One Parent Families Scotland who have been dealing with many families over the past year in Lanarkshire and other areas of Glasgow as it has been already rolled out in these areas. There have been many issues flagged up mostly relating to financial issues.

There is help out there from various agencies but my advice would be if applying for UC find out what is needed before you start your claim and the conditionality relating to you as everybody's can be different.

The number for One Parent Families Scotland in Glasgow is 0141 847 0444. If there are other parishioners who are dealing with people who are affected by UC or know of other agencies within the area that are offering support could you pass it onto Father G and we can make this known to people it concerns. If you need any more information make contact through the parish email address or phone Margaret McTaggart on 07751529034 and we can look at what support could be given.
