PROFILE

I'm an illustrator with a background in fine art and graphic design, currently working in-house for Santoro London on their innovative 3D pop-up cards and their trademark Gorjuss range.

On top of my full-time employment, I also work with the luxury handbag company Ethan K on comic book pages, patterns, wallpaper designs for Harrods and animations.

Even though my current job is largely illustration based, I am also passionate about many other creative endeavours, including photography, video, animation and graphic design.

KEY SKILLS and INTERESTS

Excellent knowledge of Photoshop (image making/editing and animating), Illustrator, ArtRage, InDesign, Premiere Pro, Lightroom and most traditional media (graphite, charcoal, ink, watercolours and acrylics). Very good working skills in Adobe Muse, Flash, WordPress, Microsoft Word and Power Point. Good and beginner skills in After Effects, and Maya 2015.

Some of my hobbies include:

Learning new software/ skills, reading, travelling and sketching people on the tube.

EDUCATION

Illustration and Graphics - graduated with a First-Class Honours Degree BA Hons

Coventry University, Coventry, United Kingdom (2010- 2013)

Graphics and Fine Art - graduated with an 87% International Baccalaureate

“Stefan Luchian” High School/College of Arts, Botosani, Romania (2002- 2010)

ACHIEVEMENTS and EXPERIENCE

-Full time Illustrator for Santoro London (Jan 2016- present):

Work ranging from illustrating 2D and 3D pop-up cards in a number of popular styles, to working on their trademark characters and creating new ones for future product ranges.

Some of the work also includes product photography, clipping and colour adjusting, housekeeping projects like creating icons or modifying existing artwork and creating 3D clay models for different stationary products (key rings, erasers, pen toppers etc)

-Digital Design Internship with Blue Baboon Digital (2015):

My role as a digital designer was very diverse, ranging from designing rough web pages for pitches, to creating the team's low-poly vector portraits, marketing material for We Make Footballers (leaflets, brochures, posters, social media content) and doing photography and photo editing (for JCM London and Kicking Ribbons)

-Placement through Coventry University (2012):

My role was to illustrate the 'Coventry Words' E-book of short stories and poems with original watercolour paintings. I also assisted in designing the front cover and CD booklet for a series of children's stories.

Freelance work:

-Illustrated comic book pages for the luxury handbag company Ethan K, to tell the story of how each bespoke bag has been created and for whom. (2015- present)

-Designed and animated Ethan K's new logo, as well as created patterns and other artwork for their rebranding campaign (currently displayed on their new website and in Harrods). (2016)

-Created marketing material for print (leaflets, posters, booklets, banners) and digital (social media promotion and downloadable PDFs for the website) for We Make Footballers. (2015)

-Did jewellery photography and photo editing for JCM London. (2015)

-Designed a character and created illustrations and a few short animations for an artist label signing event through Metropolis Studios. (2015)

-Created vector illustrations and graphic design for a book on music recording for Focal Press. (2014-2015)

-Designed vectorized labels for Imperial Candles, and did packaging design for some of their special edition products. (2014)

-Created illustrations for a short animation for Metropolis Productions. (2014)

-Illustrated and developed the story for a short comic book (15 pages + covers), that served as a prequel to a science fiction story brought to life through the fusion of live electronic music and theatre. (2013)

-Designed a number of logos (for start-up businesses, music studios and avatars). (2013)

-Created the covers, booklet and the CD design for a band's album. (2013)

Exhibitions and competitions:

-Free Range Art and Design Exhibition (London, UK) (2013)

-Degree Show Exhibition- Coventry School of Art and Design (Coventry, UK) (2013)

For this, I also designed 50+ exhibition boards, got them ready for print and helped mount and display them in the exhibition area. (2013)

-Final Year Exhibition for 'Stefan Luchian' Art High School Graduates (Botosani, Romania) (2010)

-Annual Competition-'Stefan Luchian' Tribute- won 1st place (Botosani, Romania) (2010)

-Annual Art Exhibition-'Stefan Luchian' Tribute (Botosani, Romania) (2010)
