

"Blossom" - GCR/RV Astrology - Friday - August 11, 2017

Venezuela, Qatar, Palestine, Israel, Yemen, Syria, Turkey, Iraq... get it? If there's chaos there cannot exist peace.

That said, such attempts to cloud benevolence with veils of evil is no longer working.

That old cabal playbook is just no longer an option energetically.

So what now?

When the markets are at their lowest volumes and least amount of damage can be done to global equities.

At some point the world will permanently adjust and ignore, or worse leave behind the screaming children of chaos... a la China (and Russia) just did to North Korea.

As the IMF has done to the United States.

Did you know the IMF is now intaking ZIM at 1:1 per the approval of Bank of China / Chinese Elders?

As much as ya got. As in infinite.

The RV is here folks. Sit back and let the rose blossom.

God is with us
