Preface

One of the records of Jesus commissioning his disciples is found in Matthew 28:18-20. This commission contains a two-fold imperative: (1) Go and make disciples; (2) Continue to teach them to observe all Jesus had commanded. This is well illustrated by Jesus in His public ministry. He first made disciples, and then trained them for a possible three and one-half years by His life, teachings, attitude and actions. They were there learning and experiencing at the feet of the Master Teacher! Then, He sent them out to get their feet wet among their own people. And when all things were in readiness, He sent them into all the world!

THE NECESSITY OF TRAINING OTHERS TO HELP

Did Jesus expect only the Apostles to go and teach the whole world? Common sense would cause us to say, “NO!” The early Christians were evidently trained as well. Acts 2:42 indicates they steadfastly engaged in worship and learning of the Apostles’ doctrine. Then, when persecution came, the church was scattered. While the Apostles stayed in Jerusalem for the time being, those who were scattered went everywhere preaching the word (Acts 8:1-4). Acts 8:5-40 is a recorded example of this being done by one who was not an Apostle.

As the church multiplied over the Roman world, the need for leadership in them was great; but as well, there was a need for all to be involved in the work of the Lord. God provided that special leadership of Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, Shepherds, and Teachers to bring the churches to a mature status in Christ and capable of teaching and training others who would be reached with the gospel (Ephesians 4:11-16). A constant emphasis was placed upon teaching, training others to teach (2 Timothy 2:2). In Hebrews 5:12, Christians were rebuked because they had not developed sufficiently over a period of time to be able to teach others.

The ideal would be to have every Christian so well taught and trained that they could sit down with a Bible in their hands and teach a lost person the Way of Salvation! Some would be more effective than others, naturally; but all should feel the responsibility, and all should do what they can to the extent of their time, ability, training, and opportunity.

THE VALUE OF SPECIALLY DESIGNED BIBLE STUDIES

When an effort is made to show a concern for a person and an attempt is made to talk with them about the importance of their soul, many become disillusioned and discouraged because of a lack of interest on their part. It is quickly discovered that few really want to talk about the Bible, much less to study it together. In order to teach another, it is necessary to keep looking, asking, and praying that one may be found with whom to study.
But what do you do when you find that person who is interested in studying? This is where a specially designed Bible study series can be so helpful and effective. The study needs to take one where he or she is and develop their knowledge to the point of understanding God’s Truth sufficiently to make the decision to become a child of God.

We are convinced that each person needs to find such a study for themselves; then, learn it well so that they can make a good presentation of God’s Word to the interested person. It might be well to present the study to someone in your home or to a friend who is already in the church and ask for suggestions from them on how well you did. When you feel comfortable with the study series, then make a presentation to an interested friend who wants to learn.

CONCLUSION

It must be realized that even an honest-minded person can be handicapped in his attempt to correctly understand the Bible. It is not a lack of intelligence. Rather, it may be that they have been so strongly mistaught that they will need help in getting a proper approach to the Bible that will enable them to overcome their erroneous teaching. Or, they may need help in pulling together Scriptures that give a correct conclusion to what the Bible is actually saying. This is where we can be the most help to one who is open to learn.

This 12-lesson study series has been prepared to be used to help assist others to a correct and greater understanding of God’s Word. Use it with love, and rejoice in the fruit that is born from a study of the Word of God.

Languages of the Bible. The Old Testament was mostly written in the ______________ language. This was one of the Semitic languages used in Southeast Asia. After 600 B.C., it’s use ceased among the Jewish people as their spoken language and was succeeded by the ___________ language which was spoken in Jesus’ day. The scribes and religious leaders still used the Hebrew language since the Old Testament was mostly written in Hebrew. The New Testament was written in the ___________ language. This was the principal language of the Gentile (Greek) world at the time of Jesus. It was the language of the common people (koine Greek); thus, making the circulation of the New Testament much easier among all nations.

Writers of the Bible. The Bible began to be written down about _______ B.C., and the last book is believed to have been written in_____ A.D., covering a total period of about ________ years.

Old Testament Writers:
1. __________________ (5) 4. ______________________ (1) 7. __________________ (1)
2. __________________ (1) 5. ______________________ (4) 8. __________________ (1)
3. __________________ (2) 6. ______________________ (1)

NOTE: The remaining 17 books of Prophecy carry the name of the writer with the exception of Lamentations. It was written by Jeremiah. This gives an additional 16 writers added to the above writers, making a total of _______ writers of the Old Testament.

New Testament Writers:
1. __________________ (1) 4. ______________________ (5) 7. __________________ (1)
2. __________________ (1) 5. ______________________ (14) 8. __________________ (1)

Number of Writers of the Bible________

Arrangement of the books of the Bible. The present arrangement of the books of our English Bible has come down to us from the third century A.D. It was an effort to group books that were of the same nature.

Arrangement of Old Testament Books:

Section 1 - ______ books of ______________________________________
Section 2 - ______ books of ______________________________________
Section 3 - ______ books of ______________________________________
Section 4 - ______ books of ______________________________________
Section 5 - ______ books of ______________________________________

Arrangement of New Testament Books:

Section 1 - ______ books of ______________________________________
Section 2 - ______ books of ______________________________________
Section 3 - ______ books of ______________________________________
Section 4 - ______ books of ______________________________________

Jesus gives an indication of how the Jews had arranged the Old Testament books in Luke 24:44:

“And he said unto them, these are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalms, concerning me.”

The Law of Moses (1st five books); the Prophets (12 books of History & 17 books of Prophecy); and the Psalms (books of poetry or wisdom).
Origination of the Bible: Since the Bible is here, it had to have an origin somewhere back in time. The following Scriptures indicate the process of the giving of the Bible to mankind.
Please read the following questions and Scripture References and answer appropriately.

Lesson Two

Completeness and Preservation of the Bible

Please indicate your understanding of the present condition of the Bible:
  O God revealed His complete message to mankind by the end of the first Century and He does not have to add anything to it.
  O The Bible is not complete and God is still revealing His message to mankind today.

It is important that we understand what the Bible claims in regard to these questions. The following Questions and Scriptures should help make this clear.

IS THE BIBLE COMPLETE?

1. Into how much truth were the Apostles to be guided? (John 16:13)

2. What is the Word of God called? (James 1:25)

4. How much information has God given us concerning life and godliness? (II Peter 1:3)

5. What are the Scriptures able to do for man? (II Timothy 3:16-17)

6. What warning was given in regards to the Bible? (Deuteronomy 4:2; Revelation 22:18-19)

8. Can the Bible be looked upon as infallible and free of error as God originally gave it? (James 1:25)
   O Yes
   O No

9. If you believe the Bible is the Word of God (Hebrew 4:12), what should be your attitude towards it? (James 1:22)

10. Do you believe the Bible was completed by the Apostles by the end of the first Century?
    O Yes
    O No
PRESERVATION OF THE BIBLE

The Bible began to be written down about 1490 B.C. and was put into its finished form in 96 A.D. It took a few more years for the final product to be circulated sufficiently that it could be recognized as a completed book. But that was almost 2000 years ago.

Two Important Questions:
- Can we be sure we have the same book today as it was first given to mankind?
- Is there any proof or evidence that can be seen to help convince an open mind?

HOMEWORK

(NOTE: This homework will emphasize the need for Reverence for God and His Word)

A lack of godly fear is destructive! Adam and Eve fell into sin for lack of proper reverence for what God said (Genesis 3:1-7). Nadab and Abihu were destroyed because they did not respect God’s Word (Leviticus 10:1-10). King Saul was rejected because he feared the people more than God (I Samuel 15:24).

Many people today fear only human power and wrath and are led by their own desires and pleasures because they have a low regard or no regard for God.

Reverence is godly fear, a deep awe in the presence of God, but not necessarily terror. It is profound admiration for God inspired by faith in His power, wisdom and justice. This is what motivates repentance, obedience, and a godly life (2 Corinthians 7:10; Hebrews 3:16-19; 12:28).

Reverence for God helps to make us teachable, willing to hear and follow Divine testimony (Luke 10:38-42). Reverence causes us to seek for God’s approval, eager to hear His Word so that we may be obedient children.

Please read the following Scriptures and indicate in your own words how men can show Reverence and Respect to God and His Word.

Old Testament:
1. Deuteronomy 4:2
2. Deuteronomy 12:32
3. Psalms 119:11
4. Proverbs 3:5
5. Jeremiah 10:23

New Testament:
1. Matthew 7:21
2. Acts 5:29
3. Galatians 1:6-9
4. 2 John 9
5. Revelation 22:18-19
Lesson Three

An Overview of the Bible

Even though the Bible has two major divisions, it is really only one book. While the Old Testament records the history of God's dealing with the chosen nation of ________, the New Testament records the brief history of God’s dealing with His new chosen people, _________(kingdom of God). The following outline is an overview of the Bible. It would be well that you learned it by heart.

15-Point outline of the Bible’s Contents

1. From Creation to Great Flood (Genesis 1-6)---------------------------Beginning to 2348 B.C.
2. From Flood to Abraham (Genesis 7-11)-----------------------------2348—1921 B.C.
3. Beginnings of Chosen Nation (Genesis 12-45)--------------------------1921—1706 B.C.
4. Chosen Nation in Egypt (Genesis 46-50; Exodus 1-14)---------------1706—1491 B.C.

11. Chosen Nation in Babylonian Captivity (2 Kings 24-25)-------------586—536 B.C.
12. Chosen Nation Re-established in Judah (Ezra; Nehemiah; Esther)-----536—434 B.C.
13. Between the Testaments----------------------------------------------434—4 B.C.
15. The Church, It’s beginning & spread (Acts)--------------------------29—63 A.D

THE VALUE OF AN OVERVIEW

A major mistake in the approach to understanding the Bible is to draw conclusions from isolated passages and not from the overall contexts of the Bible. A correct conclusion cannot be drawn in many instances without a proper overview of its contents. This should and will be illustrated in future lessons and homework. Please realize the value of the above outline and of the following information in this lesson.

Proper Attitude Towards the Bible

Man is not able to guide himself! Only our Creator can give man proper guidance (Jeremiah 10:23). It certainly follows therefore that man should be very thankful to God for revealing His Holy, Inspired, Infallible Word to guide him in the path of light (Psalms 119:104, 105). The Psalmist rejoiced and delighted in the Word of God. He said: “I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches. I will meditate in thy precepts, and, have respect unto thy ways. I will delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word.” (Psalms 119:114-116).

The following questions are designed to help you to see the proper attitudes that you should show toward the Word of God.

1. What proper attitude was lacking in 2 Thessalonians 2:10?

2. With what attitude should you receive the Word of God? (James 1:21)

3. What assurances do you have that you can understand the message of God?
   a) Ephesians 3:3-4______________________________________________________
   b) Revelation 2:11______________________________________________________

4. What happens when you close your mind to God’s Word? (Matthew 13:14-16)

6. Why did Jesus say people worshipped God in vain? (Mark 7:6-13)

7. What will happen if you do not abide in the doctrine (teaching) of Christ? (II John 9)

8. What is said of those who pervert the Gospel of Christ? (Galatians 1:6-9)

7. In what sense did Jesus come to “fulfill” the Law? (Matthew 5:17-18)

8. Why is the New Covenant so much more desirable as a law for us today?

9. Should we just ignore the Old Testament in our reading and studying of the Bible?

Basic Rules of Bible Study

Did God intend for the Bible to be a confusing book? Even though it does contain some statements which are “hard to be understood” (2 Peter 3:16); yet, it certainly was not meant to be confusing. However, due to widespread mishandling of the Bible, it has been made to appear confusing.

With few exceptions, most distortions of the Scriptures can be traced to a common source—improper methods of interpretation! It is through a wide variety of ill-informed approaches to interpretation that preachers have succeeded in warping the Scriptures and have confused and misled untold millions of people.

The following are a few illustrations of the common sense approach that should be taken to a proper understanding of the Word of God.

1. Is Jesus speaking for Himself or quoting someone else in Matthew 11:19?

2. To whom is Jesus speaking in Matthew 10:5-6?

3. In which Covenant is the command given to “keep the Sabbath day holy”? (Exodus 20:8-10)

4. Is the statement, “this is my body,” in Matthew 26:26 to be understood literal or figurative?

5. If you have another version of the Bible besides the King James version, find out the proper word for “prevent” as found in I Thessalonians 4:15?

6. Can “faith only” save a man, or does his faith have to be put into action before he is saved? (John 3:16; James 2:24)

7. Can you harmonize these two passages?
   a) Matthew 7:1-2_______________________________________________________
   b) John 7:24___________________________________________________________

8. Does Revelation 20:4 teach that Jesus is coming back to earth to reign for 1000 years?

A Problem To Be Solved

Please Note that the following 3 questions will have conflicting answers on the question of salvation. They will present the problem to be solved and the remainder of the questions will help show a solution that harmonizes the Bible answers.

1. What was the thief on the cross told to do (or what did he do) in order to go to Paradise with Jesus? (Luke 23:39-43; Matthew 27:44)

2. What did Jesus tell the Rich Young Ruler to do to have Eternal Life? (Luke 18:18-20)

3. What did Jesus tell His Apostles to preach to all nations and what were they to tell them to do to be saved? (Mark 16:15-16)
The Solution to the Problem

1. Under which Testament (Covenant) did the thief live? _________________________
2. Under which Testament (Covenant) did the Rich Young Ruler live? ______________
3. Under which Testament (Covenant) was the great commission given in Mark 16:15-16? __________________

The Application of the Principle

1. When did the New Testament go into force? (Hebrews 9:16-17)
2. What did Jesus tell the apostles to wait for before beginning to preach the gospel to all nations? (Acts 1:4-5; John 16:13-15)
3. When did the Holy Spirit come upon the apostles to guide them in their preaching all truth to all nations? (Acts 2:1-4)
4. After convincing these devout Jewish people that Jesus was both Lord and Christ, what did he command them to do to receive the remission (forgiveness) of their sins? (Acts 2:36-41)
5. Are these things bound upon all mankind today? (Acts 2:38; Matthew 16:18-19; 18:18; Mark 16:15-16)

Some Observations

1. Why isn’t the paralytic man’s forgiveness an example for us today? (Mark 2:1-11)
2. Why isn’t the woman’s forgiveness in John 8:1-11 an example for us today?
3. Does the answer Jesus gave the Rich Young Ruler apply to us today? (Luke 18:18-20)
4. Was the thief on the cross a “child of God” under the Old Covenant? (Genesis 17:9-14)
5. How do we know that the thief on the cross had NOT been baptized with John’s baptism? (Matthew 3:5-6)
6. Do we have the right or power to change the Testament (Will) of Christ that was bound upon mankind by the apostles?
7. Should we tell people they can be saved a different way than what Peter told the people in Acts 2:38?

Why Be A Christian?

Man has to be motivated to do what he does in most instances. We are made this way! Therefore, we can expect to find good reasons for being a Christian in the way of Rewards and Blessings. The following Scriptures are given to illustrate this concept.

Acts 2:38
Ephesians 1:3
Romans 8:28
Romans 8:37
Philippians 4:13
Philippians 3:21
Matthew 6:33
Philippians 4:6-7

Lesson Seven

All Thy Commandments are Truth

One of the grave errors made in studying the Bible is to consider one verse to be the Truth of God, but when another verse seems to be contrary to my understanding, it is rejected as not being God’s Truth. This is not only being dishonest with the Bible, but it usually leads to our being wrong in our beliefs and practices! There is an important principle here that must be understood and respected.………Take all of what the Bible says on a subject and then form a correct understanding of God’s Truth!

ILLUSTRATIONS OF THIS PRINCIPLE

Please read carefully the following Scriptures and check the statement which best reflects the meaning of the passage.

Matthew 23:23
___1. Jesus said they should have given a tithe;
___2. Jesus said they should have done the weightier matters.
___3. Both must be done to be acceptable.

Matthew 22:37-40
___1. Jesus taught that men must love God.
___2. Jesus taught that men must love their neighbor.
___3. Both must be done to be acceptable.

James 1:22
___1. James teaches that men must hear the word.
___2. James teaches that men must do what the word says.
___3. Both must be done to be acceptable.

John 3:16; James 2:18-20, 24
___1. Jesus teaches that men must believe to be saved.
___2. James teaches that men must have works to be saved.
___3. The correct understanding is that men must have a working, obedient faith.

1 John 3:18
___1. Men need to love in word.
___2. Men need to love in deed.
___3. Men need to do both to have true love.

James 1:27
___1. Men need to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction.
___2. Men need to keep themselves unspotted from the world.
___3. It takes both to have pure and undefiled religion.
APPLICATION OF THIS PRINCIPLE

The following is a big problem in the religious world that has partially been caused by translators of the Bible. When the word baptism is used, different ideas come to the minds of different people. Why? Partially because the word has not been translated! It has been transliterated! The following is a way of helping to illustrate this fact. Please fill in the English letters directly below the Greek letters.

Greek Letters: Βαπτιζω

English Letters: __________________________

Since the word is not translated, how can the average Bible reader know what God is commanding when he commands baptizo (bapitise)? If you do not have access to a Greek Lexicon, you can still find the answer from the Bible by applying our principle. That is, get all the Scriptures together that give any indication of how baptism was performed and then draw your conclusion from the Bible. Below are these Scriptures. Please put in the blank to the right what is indicated about baptism.

Sprinkling, Pouring, and Immersion are three different actions. There are also three different Greek words used to express these actions. See what each Greek word means below:

Lesson Eight

The Harmonious Nature of Truth

Truth is Truth! It is not error, nor is it a lie! Truth is in complete harmony with itself. This is a very important concept if a right understanding of the Bible is desired. Many have stated that they believe the Bible contradicts itself. On the surface, without a careful study of the context (and comparing other Scriptures on the same subject), it is easy to see why people would draw this conclusion. Not understanding this important principle has played havoc in the religious world. We would like to illustrate how this principle easily solves the “great” problems that some people have in understanding the Bible correctly.

THE PRINCIPLE:
Truth is in complete harmony with itself when properly understood.

1. According to Romans 4:2, was Abraham justified by his works?

2. What does the Scripture say about Abraham’s being accounted as righteous? (Romans 4:3)

3. What does it mean that the man who works is owed a debt? (Romans 4:4)

4. By what is a man accounted righteous? (Romans 4:5)

9. Can a person be justified by the “Works of the Law?” (Galatians 3:11; Romans 3:20)

10. If a man cannot be justified by “Works of Law”, then by what can he be justified?
   a) Titus 3:5-7
   b) Ephesians 2:8-9
   c) Romans 3:19-26

11. How does James say Abraham was justified? (James 2:21)

12. Is this a contradiction of what Paul stated in Romans 4:1-5?

13. Does James say Abraham was justified by Faith? (James 2:22-23)

Counting the Cost to Follow Christ

Remember the ol’ days of youth and the water-hole not far away where many of the neighborhood children would swim. In the Spring, while the water was still cool, there was a reluctance to jump in. Finally, one brave soul would jump in, shiver a little, and look back, saying: “Come on in, the water’s fine. What are you waiting on?” So, one after another would get up the courage to “take the plunge!”

In a similar way, God is calling on us to surrender to Him and become His follower. Some have “made the plunge.” Others have no plans to do so. While others are undecided, God is calling on us to make the plunge, to complete surrender to Him.

1. Why is it so important for you to follow Christ? (John 14:6)

2. What kind of commitment is God calling for you to make? (Romans 12:1)

3. How is this commitment described? (See the following passages):
   a) Matthew 10:34-37
   b) Matthew 10:38
   c) Matthew 10:39
   d) Luke 14:33

4. What does Jesus advise you to do before becoming His follower? (Luke 14:28-32)

5. For how long should you be a follower of Jesus? (Revelation 2:10)

6. Does commitment to God and popularity with the world go hand in hand? (John 15:18-19)

7. Does commitment to God involve giving yourself in service to others? (Matthew 20:25-28; James 1:22-25)

What would hinder you from full commitment?
O Unwillingness to surrender all to Jesus?
O Love others more than God?
O Love the world more than having a hope of Heaven?

“A Redeemer is coming!” was the message of the Old Testament. The New Testament opens with the message: “A Redeemer has come!” The Redeemer was to redeem a special people unto the Lord who would become His church (the called out people) or the new kingdom of God among men. We need to understand the great importance that the Bible gives to this group of people.

OBEEDIENCE TO GOD

Commands of God are both GENERAL and SPECIFIC in nature. When a command is GENERAL, man’s judgment has to be used to carry it out to the best of his knowledge. But when the command is SPECIFIC in nature, then we have to carry it out the way the Lord specifies!

Lesson Ten

Apostasy, Reformation, And Restoration

Mankind never seems to stay faithful to God for very long as a general rule. He has demonstrated his failures to God over and over through the centuries. The most obvious and well-known illustration of this fact is seen in the Israelite people. They would be faithful to God for a while, usually when they had good leadership, and then they would gradually drift away again. Read Judges 2:7, 11-12, 16-19.

Principle

"Depart from the Word of God, and you depart from God!"

Brief Historical Sketch

The church as God revealed it in His Word was gradually changed by men over a period of several hundred years into a “man-made” church with its own government and its human doctrines and commands to be followed. While some basic fundamentals of Christianity were retained, yet, many changes were made through the centuries. All efforts to stop this downhill slide were met with firm rebuke, persecution and even death in many instances. This apostate church continued to become more and more corrupt.

It was not until the 1500’s that sufficient efforts were made to begin bringing about some changes. But because of strong resistance, these efforts began to divide up into several different religious groups started in different countries: The Lutheran church in Germany; the Church of England in England (known as the Episcopal Church in America); the Presbyterian Church in Scotland; the Methodist Church in England and America; and the Baptist Church in England and America. Other lesser known churches were also started during this same period of time. Since the 1700’s, more and more churches have been started by men. All of these have their own sectarian name, special form of government, and their own doctrines to govern their churches.

However, serious and honest-minded people could not reconcile all these churches with what the Bible taught. So one after another began advocating a Restoration of the church as it was in its beginning. The approach was: 1) Just go by the Word of God only; 2) Drop all human names that divide people; 3) Just become a Christian the same way they did in the first century, by obeying the gospel; 4) Become a member of the Lord’s church, the body of Christ. Churches of Christ exist today throughout the world as a result of these early efforts at Restoration.

6. If people who have left God want to return to Him, what must they do?
