Introduction

In centuries earlier than the twenty-first, the Bible was so universally taught in Western nations that nearly everyone had intimate knowledge of the basics of Scripture. Sadly, that interest in God’s word has waned mightily and now even among Christians, the young are more likely to be immersed in entertainment and recreation than fundamental, divine principles. This two-part series of studies, Bible 101, is designed to chase away ignorance of God’s word with an overview of the Bible message.

Lesson 13: Review

1. Why is our savior called Jesus (Luke 2:21, Matthew 1:21-25)? What is the significance of the name Immanuel (Matthew 1:21-23)?

2. Consider Matthew 7:13-29. What makes the difference between the wise man and the foolish?

3. Read Luke 23:26-47. How was Jesus treated by the Jews, the soldiers and the criminals being crucified beside him? What did the centurion say when Jesus breathed his last?

4. The conversation between the resurrected Jesus and some of his disciples on the road to Emmaus is quite telling. Then, many of them were disillusioned because they believed he was supposed to be a military deliverer and that his death meant he failed. Today, modern Premillennialists believe likewise that his death was a contingency after he failed to convert enough Jews. How does Jesus answer this false contention (Luke 24:13-35, especially verses 26-27)?

5. Who wrote the “Acts of the Apostles” (Acts 1:1-14)? According to the author, what did Jesus provide the apostles after his resurrection?
4. List some commandments or traditions of men that have been added to God’s word by Catholic or Protestant churches.

5. Men continued to diverge from the Bible until a pope was appointed in A.D. 606 and the Roman Catholic Church was born. Among many errors, the sale of indulgences infuriated more pious thinkers like a priest named Martin Luther, who nailed 95 complaints to the door of the Catholic Church in Wittenberg, Germany on October 31, 1517. The Protestant Reformation was born, and with it came the theories of John Calvin. Can you identify the five major facets of Calvinism, illustrated with the TULIP acrostic?

6. Instead of reforming the Catholic Church, dozens of denominations were founded in this era, including the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches. The disunity of what came to be called “Christendom” intensified. Throughout this time, however, small bands of disciples continued to employ only the New Testament as their creed, eschewing both Catholicism and Protestantism. In the early 1800s, their numbers suddenly boomed as the concept of restoring practices to the Biblical model gained acceptance. Men began again to take very seriously edicts like the one contained in First Peter 4:11. What does it mean to “speak as the oracles of God”?

7. Disciples who are committed to following only the New Testament as their creed are called properly only “Christians,” and collectively form “churches of Christ” or something else found explicitly in Scripture. Can you find where these terms are used in the Bible?

Lesson 1: Young Jesus

1. What is the name of Jesus’s older cousin, born to Zacharias and Elizabeth (Luke 1:5-25)? What was his mission (1:57-80)?

2. How far back is the genealogy of Jesus Christ traced (Matthew 1:1-17)? Why do the genealogies in Matthew and Luke (3:23-38) differ?

3. Who told Mary she would bear the savior (Luke 1:26-55)? What did this character prevent Joseph from doing (Matthew 1:18-25)?

4. Consider Luke’s account of Christ’s birth (2:1-20). Answer the following questions:
   a. Why did Joseph and Mary go to Bethlehem?
   b. Where in Bethlehem was Jesus born?
   c. How soon did the shepherds arrive?
   d. Where are the magi, or wise men, so familiar in modern nativity scenes?
5. Why is he called Jesus (Luke 2:21, Matthew 1:21-25)? What is the significance of the name Immanuel (Matthew 1:21-23)?

6. When the family went to Jerusalem to present Jesus to God, they were met by a man named Simeon. How does Luke describe Simeon (2:22-35)? How did Simeon react to the baby Jesus?

7. How did Anna the aged prophetess react to the sight of Jesus (Luke 2:36-38)?

8. How did the wise men find their way to Jerusalem (Matthew 2:1-6)? Why was Herod troubled? What gifts did they bring (2:7-12)?

9. Why did the family flee to Egypt (Matthew 2:13-18)? How did Jesus come to be called a Nazarene (Matthew 2:19-23)?

10. What happened when Jesus was age twelve (Luke 2:41-52)?

Lesson 12: Since A.D. 100

1. The time since the close of the writing of the New Testament around A.D. 100 has seen three major eras: first, Apostasy; second, The Protestant Reformation; and third, New Testament Restoration. The seeds of apostasy, however, are evident even in the challenges facing the faithful in the New Testament. Identify the dangers that Paul warns about in the following passages:
   a. Acts 20:28-30:
   b. First Corinthians 1:10-13:
   c. Second Thessalonians 2:3-4:
   d. First Timothy 4:1-3:
   e. Second Timothy 4:1-4:

2. The apostasy that develops in the centuries after the apostles’ deaths is hastened by the decline of congregational autonomy, or “self-rule.” Under the New Testament, how broad is the authority of elders (Acts 20:28, First Peter 5:1-5)? Is “bishop” synonymous with “elder” or a higher office? What passage discusses the qualifications for the offices of “cardinal” or “pope”?

3. Where does the church find its source of authority and guidance—a perpetual succession of popes or in Scripture (James 1:25, James 4:12, John 12:48, Jude 3, First Peter 1:22-25, Matthew 28:18-20, Romans 10:17)? What is the danger in adding our tradition to Scripture to form an authoritative team (Matthew 15:1-14)?
4. Revelation contains three series of sevens that foretell the persecution the early church would face prior to relief. List the series:
   a. Revelation 6:1-8:5:
   b. Revelation 8:6-11:19:
   c. Revelation 16:1-21:

5. Try to distinguish between the symbolic groups of 144,000 and the great multitude (7:1-17). Where were they located in relation to each other?

6. What happened when John ate the little book (10:1-11)? Why?

7. If Revelation was written in the first century and it describes things that were then about to take place, what city would be represented by the great harlot (17:1-18)?

8. The thousand years of Revelation 20 represents a long break in the action between the persecution of the early church by Rome and the return of Christ yet future even now. What is the role of the great white throne and book of life in those events?

9. What is the second death (Revelation 21:1-8)?

10. Where have we seen the tree of life before (22:1-5)?

11. How does Revelation end (Revelation 22:14-21)?

Lesson 2: Ministry of Christ.

1. What does Jesus’s cousin, John, do to prepare the way (Luke 3:1-18)? At what point does Christ’s ministry commence (Luke 3:19-23, Matthew 4:12-17)? What is Christ’s theme (Matthew 4:17)?

2. List his twelve apostles and describe them, if possible (Matthew 10:1-4):

3. The deity of Christ was also a divisive point among his audiences, especially the Jewish leaders who wanted a military messiah but doubted that this carpenter’s son could conquer the Romans without destroying the elders’ power. In the following two passages, how does Jesus establish his connection with Jehovah?
   - John 5:16-18:
   - John 8:24-59:

4. In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus volunteered that his doctrine would differ from Moses. What did he admit was his intention toward the Law of Moses (Matthew 5:17-20). What phrases did he use in the rest of Matthew 5 to make that point clear?
5. Consider Matthew 7:13-29. What makes the difference between the wise man and the foolish?

6. How did Jesus teach Nicodemus about entering the kingdom of God (John 3:1-21)? With what did Jesus identify the kingdom after Peter confessed Jesus was the Christ (Matthew 16:13-19)?

7. What was the purpose of the miracles (John 20:30-31)? Give an example.

8. Why did Jesus teach in parables (Matthew 13:10-17)? Give an example.

9. What abuse made the hypocrites’ worship vain (Matthew 15:1-9)?

10. Did Jesus know that he was going to die (Matthew 16:21-28, John 10:1-18)? Explain.

11. How do the following passages establish his authority?
   a. Matthew 7:29:
   b. Matthew 17:1-9:

12. Why did he wash the disciples’ feet (John 13:1-20)?

Lesson II: Revelation

1. There are three important clues in the opening three verses of Revelation that help us to interpret the book. Identify the importance of each:
   - Things which must shortly take place:
   - He sent and signified:
   - The time is near:

2. What is your overall impression of the appearance of Jesus to John (Revelation 1:9-20)? What do the lamp stands represent?

3. How would you characterize the seven churches?
   1. Ephesus (2:1-7):
   2. Smyrna (2:8-11):
   3. Pergamos (2:12-17):
   4. Thyatira (2:18-29):
   5. Sardis (3:1-6):
   7. Laodicea (3:14-22):
7. What is the purpose of God’s delay in sending Jesus back (Second Peter 3:1-13)? For what are we looking?

God’s patience is evidence of his desire that all men should repent and be saved. We are looking for new heavens and a new Earth in Heaven.

8. What are the requirements for fellowship (First John 1:1-10)? Is obedience really necessary or is that just legalism (First John 2:1-6)? How do you know?

Man must have fellowship with God by living holy and repenting of his sins. If we abide in Christ, we ought to walk as he walked.

9. What is in the world (First John 2:15-17)?

The lust of the eyes, the lust of the flesh and the pride of life.

10. Who is coming in this last hour (First John 2:18-29)? How do we identify false spirits (First John 4:1-6)?

We identify antichrists by testing them against Scripture.

11. How much fellowship are we permitted to enjoy with false brethren (Second John 2:7-11)? What are the limits?

We are permitted no fellowship with false brethren and should not entertain them in our homes or extend a hand of fellowship to them.

12. What was wrong with Diotrephes (Third John 9-10)? What was right with Demetrius (Third John 12)?

Diotrephes loved to be preeminent in the church and threw perceived rivals out, even denying a hearing to the apostles. Demetrius had a good testimony.

13. When dealing with error, should we be “contentious” (Jude 3-4)?

We should contend for the true faith without being contentious.

14. How should we deal with people who are being led astray (Jude 22-23)?

We must make distinctions, having compassion on some while saving others with fear by pulling them out of the fire.

Lesson 3: Sacrifice of Christ

1. Consider Isaiah 53. Why did God plan to send Jesus to the cross?

2. Did Jesus “know” he was going to die before prophesying the imminent arrival of the kingdom of God (Matthew 16:21-28)? How do you know?

Jesus predicted his murder at the hands of the Jews before predicting that the kingdom would arrive within the lives of some present before him (Mark 9:1).

3. How did Caiaaphas the high priest unwittingly predict the fulfillment of prophecy concerning Jesus (John 11:45-53)? What happened to Jesus at the house of Simon the leper (Mark 14:1-11)?

Caiaphas argued that it was expedient for one man to die rather than to have the Romans take away their liberty. Jesus was anointed by Mary for his impending death and burial, to the consternation of the apostles who did not understand his death was near.

He entered Jerusalem over a path of palm branches upon a donkey’s colt as the King of Israel. Judas Iscariot betrayed Jesus into the hands of the Jews.

5. What weekly religious observance did Jesus institute during his Last Supper, the Passover meal on the day before his crucifixion (Luke 22:7-22)?

It is the Lord’s Supper, the unleavened bread of his body and the cup of wine of his blood of the new covenant.

6. Where was Jesus arrested (Luke 22:39-54)? Did he resist them (63-71)?
7. What charges were levied against him before Pontius Pilate (Luke 23:1-25)? Did Pilate really want to kill Jesus? How do you know?

Jesus was accused of perverting Israel, forbidding his audience to pay taxes to Caesar and saying that he was the Christ, a King. Pilate wanted to release Jesus since there was no evidence against him, but the mob demanded that Barabbas be released instead.

8. Read Luke 23:26-47. How was Jesus treated by the Jews, the soldiers and the criminals being crucified beside him? What did the centurion say when Jesus breathed his last?

All the people, soldiers and elders mocked Jesus and spat at him, but one of the criminals repented on the cross. The centurion answered, “Certainly, this was a righteous man!”

9. Where was Jesus’s body buried (Luke 23:50-56)? How long did it remain there (Luke 24:1-12)?

Jesus was buried in the tomb of Joseph of Arimathea, but he arose from the dead about three days later, the following Sunday.

10. The conversation between Jesus and some of his disciples on the road to Emmaus is quite telling. Then, many of them were disillusioned because they believed he was supposed to be a military deliverer and that his death meant he failed. Today, modern Premillennialists believe likewise that his death was a contingency after he failed to convert enough Jews. How does Jesus answer this false contention (Luke 24:13-35, especially verses 26-27)?

Jesus showed from the Law and the Prophets that the Christ was supposed to suffer and enter into his glory. His death was no surprise.

11. What were his last instructions to his apostles (Luke 24:46-49, Matthew 28:18-20, Mark 16:15-20)?

In the great commission, Jesus ordered the apostles to wait in Jerusalem until they were endowed with power from on high, and then to go into all the world, teaching the lost and making disciples by baptizing them.

12. As Jesus ascends into Heaven, what is the angels’ consolation about him (Acts 1:1-11)?

Lesson 10: General Epistles

4. What is the will of the Gentiles (First Peter 4:1-6)? What does it mean to “speak as the oracles of God” (First Peter 4:10-11)?

5. List the attributes we are to add (Second Peter 1:5-11)? What is the result of their addition?

6. How much success did Peter foresee for false teachers (Second Peter 2:1-19)? What happens to the one who is led astray by such error (Second Peter 2:20-22)?
8. To what three professions does Paul compare the preacher, as he tries to teach Timothy to persevere (Second Timothy 2:1-7)?

He compares the preacher to a soldier who cannot entangle himself in the affairs of life, the athlete who must obey the rules of competition and the hardworking farmer who is first to partake of his fruits.

9. What happens to all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus (Second Timothy 3:12)?

They suffer persecution.

10. For what four facets of preaching does God’s word thoroughly equip the man of God (Second Timothy 3:16-17)? What does it mean to preach the word “in season and out of season” (Second Timothy 4:1-5)?

The preacher is equipped for doctrine, reproof, correction and instruction in righteousness. He preaches truth when it is popular and when it is not.

11. How did Paul express confidence about his eternal fate (Second Timothy 4:6-8)?

After he had fought the good fight, finished the race and kept the faith, he foresaw a crown of righteousness laid up for him.

14. Who wrote the “Acts of the Apostles” (Acts 1:1-14)? According to the author, what did Jesus provide the apostles after his resurrection?

Luke wrote Acts, in which he describes the aftermath of Christ’s visit with the apostles before his ascension. He presented himself alive by many infallible proofs over a period of 40 days and taught about the kingdom of God.

15. Who was chosen to succeed Judas Iscariot as an apostle? What criteria were used to select him? Does this authorize a succession for every apostolic office (Acts 1:15-26)? Explain.

Matthias was chosen over Joseph Barsabas Justus to fulfill the prophecy of Psalms 69:25 and 109:8. Only Judas’s office was to be refilled.

16. Jesus told the apostles to tarry in Jerusalem until they were endowed with power from on high and that the kingdom would come with power. How is this power manifested (Acts 2:1-21)? Whose prophecy is fulfilled here?

Joel’s prediction about miraculous power is fulfilled as the Holy Spirit falls as tongues of fire upon the apostles, causing them to preach in various languages.

17. By what act did God raise Jesus up to sit on David’s throne (Acts 2:22-36)? What effect did Peter’s accusations have on his audience (Acts 2:37-39)? What did the believers do (Acts 2:40-47)?

God resurrected Jesus to sit on David’s throne in heaven, where he began to rule over his church, including some from Peter’s audience who were cut to the heart when accused of killing God’s son. They repented of their sins and were baptized for their remission before entering into the apostles’ fellowship.

8. What brings the first internal discord to the church at Jerusalem (Acts 6:1-7)? How did the apostles resolve the problem?

9. How did Stephen make the Jews angry (Acts 6:8-7:60)? How did he die?

10. Why were men like Philip driven out of Jerusalem (Acts 8:1-3)? What success did he have in his preaching (Acts 8:4-40)?

Lesson 9: Two Preachers

1. What do we know about Timothy’s background (First Timothy 1:3, 4:12, Second Timothy 1:3-6)? What do we know about Titus’s background (Titus 1:4-5)?

2. What was Paul’s first charge to Timothy (First Timothy 1:3-11)? Did he have the same concern when he wrote to Titus (1:10-16)? List some false brethren that Paul notes (First Timothy 1:18-20, Second Timothy 2:14-19). What are two specific false doctrines (First Timothy 4:1-5)?

7. What kind of spirit has God given his people (Second Timothy 1:7)?
7. What example should a man use to learn how to love his wife properly (Ephesians 5:22-33)?

8. List the elements of the armor of God (Ephesians 6:10-20):

10. Are Christians today required to observe the Sabbath (Colossians 2:16-23)? Should they be required to abstain from eating meats?

11. Read the brief book of Philemon, which was written while Paul was in prison. Who was Philemon? Who was Onesimus?

12. What did Paul do with Onesimus? Why?

1. Why did Paul and Barnabas turn their attention to Gentiles while in Antioch of Pisidia (Acts 13:1-52)?

2. What “useless things” did Paul expose in Lystra (Acts 14:1-28)? How did the people there respond to the gospel?

6. Under what circumstances is circumcision an offense against the law of Christ (Galatians 5:1-6)?

Circumcision is only an offense when it is done to satisfy the defunct Law of Moses in an attempt to be justified by personal works. Such an attempt causes one to fall from grace.

7. Is it possible to fall from grace (Galatians 5:4, Hebrews 10:19-39, 12:12-17)?

It is possible to fall from grace, according to Paul. The Hebrew writer describes the process as trampling Christ underfoot, counting Christ's blood as common and insulting the spirit, in the fashion of Esau who sold his birthright.

8. Consider Romans 8:1-11. What determines whether one is carnally minded or spiritually minded? Is it faith alone or a working faith?

It is obviously a working faith that walks according to the spirit.

9. How does Paul describe this life in Romans 12:1-2 and 13:11-14?

This life is not conformed to the world but is transformed by the renewing of the mind. It wears the life of Christ without making any provision for sin.

10. Beyond simple belief, what is involved in receiving the word (James 1:21-25)?

One must lay aside filthiness and wickedness to receive the saving word, becoming a doer of the word and not merely a hearer.

11. Consider Romans 4:1-8 and James 2:14-26. How do you harmonize the two writers while Paul suggests that Abraham was justified apart from works and James argues that he was justified by works and not faith only?

Paul is arguing that no man is self-justified, either by living sinlessly or remitting his own sins. He is not justified by his own works of the Law of Moses, but is justified by works of faith, that is, obeying the gospel.

Lesson 7: Two Churches

1. Paul wrote two letters each to the churches at Corinth and Thessalonica in the early part of the sixth decade of the first century. All four of the letters contain elements of positive exhortation, but they are overwhelmingly corrective in nature. This is especially true in the first Corinthian letter. What is the first pressing issue that Paul tackles (First Corinthians 1:10-17, 3:1-23)?

2. What moral issue had shamed the church at Corinth (First Corinthians 5:1-13)? How were they handling it? What did Paul recommend? How did that man respond (Second Corinthians 2:1-11)?

The church was tolerating one of its own who had married his stepmother. Paul urged them to withdraw from him. He later repented.

3. What is the implication of Paul's statement that the body is a temple of the Holy Spirit (First Corinthians 6:12-20 and First Thessalonians 4:1-8)? What role does marriage play in this (7:1-40)?

We must be careful to keep our bodies pure because our sanctification is sexual morality. Marriage offers a scriptural place for sexual activity to occur.

4. What does Paul teach about the possibility of apostasy (First Corinthians 10:1-13)?

Like the pilgrims, we may fall if we lose faith or diligence. We must take heed lest we fall and reject temptation by the power that God affords us.

5. What dangers surround a thoughtless participation in the communion (First Corinthians 11:17-34)? What is true if Christ was not raised (15:12-19)?
