

Bio of Gabrielle Bartlett

Gabrielle is the Marketing Coordinator at JobSupport.

Gabrielle has spent most of her career in the disability employment space, and for the most part of 10 years, as Jobsupport's Marketing Coordinator. Fiercely dedicated to linking employers with hard working employees with an intellectual disability and creating a customised win-win for both parties, Gabrielle has worked with employers to create over 100 jobs for Jobsupport alone and trained and mentored many co-workers to do the same.

Well known for her passion and commitment for sharing the inclusion message, Gabrielle is unwavering in her mission to encourage employers to think outside the square when it comes to the value of diversity within the workplace, in particular for people with a moderate intellectual disability.
