

Help Save Beautiful Laurelhurst

Portland is a city of neighborhoods, each with a distinctive sense of place. That could all change as developers throughout the city continue to tear down beautiful, century-old houses. The City's residential infill project (RIP) re-zoning will lead to more demolitions of older homes as developers build duplexes, triplexes, and even small apartment complexes, including in Laurelhurst.

It is time to protect Laurelhurst through a Historic District designation.

As a Historic District, Laurelhurst will be protected from demolitions of beautiful old houses. New construction will be consistent with the neighborhood's character and appearance. Our property values will be protected. Our neighborhood will be preserved.
