The Takoma Park Youth Collaborative “Who Wants to Work” Challenge introduces high school age youth to the world of career preparation.

In this FREE program participants will learn:

- the skills to seek and find employment,
- to build personal and professional networking skills,
- to give an elevator speech,
- to write a cover letter and resume,
- interview skills through a mock interview, and
- how to use social media to build a professional presence.

Small prizes regularly awarded to active participants.

Participants that complete the challenge will receive a special referral to Takoma Park’s Summer Youth Employment Program.
