

What type of phone line am I required to have?

Your line must be a dedicated phone line and cannot have call waiting, caller ID, voice messaging/answering machines, or fax services. Digital phone lines are now supported by Arise for most clients. Please check the opportunity announcement to see if your client allows you to use a digital line. Phone requirements must be met by the time you start your client certification course.