Changing the World, One Wall at a Time tells the story of Education is Not a Crime—one of the largest street art and human rights campaigns to raise awareness of education discrimination by Iran's government against tens of thousands of young Baha'is. The film features interviews with popular street artists from around the world—as well as activists with experience of the Civil Rights movement, the anti-Apartheid struggle in South Africa, and human rights work on behalf of Iranians of all backgrounds.

Hosted by the Baha'is of Beaufort County.

“We fought brutality with arts and creativity.”
