

Reasoning for references:

- Know that references will be used as backup contact information.
- We will not contact references unless, for some reason, we get lost in touch with you.
- References have no financial obligation, and references do not have to write a letter of recommendation.
- We need only need their names, contact information, and relation to you.
- These references are recommended to be someone you know or happen to be close with.
- They cannot live with you nor have the same address as each other.
- You can use anyone such as friends, neighbors, relatives, and even employers.
