

Collective International Biographies

Drum, S .; Whiteley, HE Women in veterinary medicine. Profiles of succes. Ames, Iowa: Iowa State UP, 1991. xv, 270 p.

Neumann, Louis-Georges. Biographies vétérinaires . Paris, Asselin et Houzeau, 1896. xii, 443 p.

Nazet, Horst. [Life histories of some meritorious cattle doctors (from the non-German area I)]. CVs of some deserving Buiatriker (foreign language room I). Hannover: Veterinary College, 1966. 76 p. (For biographies of German cattle doctors, see the dissertation by Klaus Peter Steinhoff, under: 'Collective national biographies: Germany')

Rieck, Wilhelm. [231 Biographical Contributions]. 231 Biographical contributions. In: Veterinary and animal breeding. Real Encyclopaedia of practical livestock . V. Stang and D. Wirth (eds.). Berlin, Vienna: Urban & Schwarzenberg, 1926-1932. 10 volumes.

Sackmann, Werner. Biographical and bibliographic materials for the history of microbiology and bacteriological nomenclature. Biographical and bibliographic materials on the history of microbiology and bacteriological nomenclature . Frankfurt am Main [etc.]: Lang, 1985. 412, viii p.

Saunders, LZ A biographical history of veterinary pathology . Lawrence, Kansas: Allen Press, 1996. xviii, 590 p.

Schrader, Georg W. [Bio-bibliographical lexicon of veterinarians of all periods and countries, and thus of natural scientists, medical doctors, agriculturists, stablemasters, etc., who made themselves useful for animal medicine]. Biographical-literary lexicon of the veterinarians of all times and countries, as well as the naturalists, physicians, farmers, stable masters, etc., who have rendered outstanding services to animal herding . Edited by Eduard Hering. Stuttgart: Ebner and Seubert, 1863. x, 490 p.

[For corrections and supplements, consult: O. Ritter Troll-Obergfell in: Contributions to the History of Veterinary Medicine , Vol. 3 (1940/41) - Bd.7 (1944/45)]