3.3.3 General Assemblies may be called by the Board, or by a requisition signed by any five-hundred (500) Members and delivered to the Chair of the Board.

3.3.3.1 Should a General Assembly be called by the Board, the Board shall approve the agenda of the General Assembly.

3.3.3.2 Should a General Assembly be called by any five-hundred (500) Members, the agenda shall be included in the requisition. The UOSU shall give notice of the requisitioned General Assembly no more than fourteen (14) days after verifying that the requisitioned has been signed by at least five-hundred (500) Members.

3.3.4 Notice of any General Assembly shall be given to every Member no less than twenty-one (21) days prior to the General Assembly. The notice shall include the time, place, and agenda of the General Assembly.

3.3.4.1 “Notice” means emails sent to every Member, a notice on the UOSU website, notices displayed in at least eight (8) buildings at the University of Ottawa campus, and notices published in the major student newspapers at the University of Ottawa.

3.3.5 The agenda of a General Assembly shall not be amended other than to reorder or remove items.

3.3.6 General Assemblies shall be conducted in accordance with the current edition of Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised, subject to Article 4.4.1.2.

3.4 Fall General Assembly

3.4.1 The Board shall hold the Fall General Assembly no later than 15 October and no earlier than 15 November. The Fall General Assembly shall be the annual meeting of the UOSU, as defined by the Act.

3.4.2 The agenda of the Fall General Assembly shall include:

3.4.2.1 a motion to approve the audited financial statements for the previous Fiscal Year;

3.4.2.2 a motion to appoint a Public Accountant for the current Fiscal Year;

3.4.2.3 a motion to approve any amendments to the Constitution adopted by the Board since the previous Fall General Assembly;

3.4.2.4 any motions submitted for consideration by Members, as described in Article 3.4.3;

3.4.2.5 any other business deemed appropriate by the Board.

3.4.3 No less than thirty (30) days prior to giving notice of the Fall General Assembly, the UOSU shall invite Members to submit motions for consideration at the Fall General Assembly.

3.4.3.1 “Invite members” means emails sent to every Member, a notice on the UOSU website, notices displayed in at least eight (8) buildings at the University of Ottawa campus, and notices published in the major student newspapers at the University of Ottawa.

- 3.4.3.2 Motions submitted by Members may be ruled out of order by the Board under s 162(6) of the Act.
- 3.4.3.3 The Board may, on the advice of legal counsel, rule out of order any motions submitted by Members that are not compatible with the fiduciary duty of Commissioners and Directors. All Commissioners and Directors shall have a right to receive the relevant legal advice in writing.
- 3.4.3.4 Motions submitted by the advertised deadline shall not be excluded from the agenda of the Fall General Assembly, except as permitted by Article 3.4.3.

3.5 Attendance by Proxy

- 3.5.1 Every Member shall have the right to attend any General Assembly by proxy.
- 3.5.2 Only Members may act as proxies, and no Member may act as a proxy for more than four (4) other Members.
- 3.5.3 Members present by proxy shall be counted towards quorum.
- 3.5.4 There shall be a period of no less than fourteen (14) days in which Members may appoint proxies. The process for appointing a proxy shall be described in the notice of the General Assembly.
- 3.5.6 No proxies shall be appointed less than forty-eight (48) hours prior to the General Assembly.

- 3.6 Any provision of the Constitution that applies to General Assemblies shall apply equally to the Fall General Assembly, unless the Constitution provides otherwise. In the event of an inconsistency between a provision that applies to General Assemblies and a provision that applies to the Fall General Assembly, only the latter shall apply to the Fall General Assembly.

3.7. Failure of Fall General Assembly

- 3.7.1 Should a General Assembly, including a Fall General Assembly, adjourn or be declared inquorate without an item of business having been considered, the item may be considered by the Board before the next General Assembly, except as limited by Article 3.2 or Article 3.7.
- 3.7.2 Should the Fall General Assembly adjourn or be declared inquorate without the audited financial statements having been approved and/or without a public accountant having been appointed, the Board shall hold another Fall General Assembly as soon as possible, without regard for the timeline established by Article 3.4.1.
- 3.7.3 Should the Fall General Assembly adjourn or be declared inquorate without a constitutional amendment having been approved or rejected, the amendment shall be deemed to have been rejected.

- 3.7.4 Should the Fall General Assembly fail to reach quorum, the Board shall hold another Fall General Assembly as soon as possible, without regard for the timeline established by Article 3.4.1.

Article IV: Board of Directors
