

Crazy Games

Event Guide

Welcome to your guide for the Finnish Crazy Games! This is best way to get ready for what will be fun-filled day and learn where and when the games will take place.

For instance, mobile throwers will need to head to the carpark, whereas dancers can be found on the upstairs deck, and those saddling up hobby horse racing will be in the backyard.

Registered for wife-carrying, sauna or a tour of the Embassy of Finland then read ahead to find out what you need to bring and where you need to go.

With games and activities happening everywhere and anywhere, this guide will make sure you do not miss out on all the craziness!

Let's begin with Finnish Crazy Games program...

10am	Hobby Horse Racing
11am	Nordic Folk Dance
11am	N-Oar-Dic Walking
12pm	Wife Carrying Trials
1pm	Mobile Throwing
2pm	Hobby Horse Racing
3pm	Wife Carrying Finals
4pm	Air Guitar

All Day Events (Berry Picking, Sauna, Embassy Tours, Company Showcase, Little Lapland)

Registration

Sauna

If you've been lucky enough to register a spot for sauna please bring swimmers, a towel and a water bottle and make sure you arrive 5-10 minutes prior to the start time. Please refer to the event map in this guide to see where the sauna is located.

Embassy Tours

Everyone registered to join a tour of the Embassy of Finland please make sure to collect your ticket from the Finnish information booth and when your time comes please wait next to reception door shown in green on the event map.

Wife Carrying

We ask that competitors please be prepared to participate by reading read the rules listed on the website. Prior to the event footwear will be inspected and wives will be weighed.

The 'wife' must be a minimum weight of 49 kilograms. Please note the only equipment that can be used during the race is the provided helmet.

Crazy Games

Air Guitar

Air Guitar will kick off from 4pm. Performers will grace the stage to show why this event illuminates the Finnish sense of humour.

Hobby Horse

Racers have two chances to saddle up at 10am and 2pm in the in the backyard. Riders of all ages are encouraged to participate.

Wife Carrying

The time to test your wife carrying speed is at 12pm. The fastest couples will move on to the finals to race of one another. Please do not forget to register for this event on the website.

Mobile Throwing

You can throw away that retro gadget from 1pm in the carpark. Remember this competition is all about accuracy rather than distance, and most importantly recycling.

N-Oar-Dic Walking

Walk Finnish style behind the racetrack from 11am. If you wish to participate please enter via the roadside footpath.

Berry Picking

We're short on berries, so we decided to swap them for the next best thing, the classic Finnish 'snowflake' safety reflectors. Pick as fast as you can for your chance to win.

Nordic Folk Dance

Canberra's Nordic Folk dancers will be on the upstairs deck from 11am. Come try your hand at some fun Finnish folk dances.

Company Showcase

Throughout the day Finnish consumer products will be on display in the Embassy of Finland Concert Hall. Head to the Finnish Crazy Games website to find out which businesses will be present on the day.

Little Lapland

Santa's Mailbox

Santa has given us a very special mailbox so that you can post a letter to the Korvatunturi. Write one using the notepaper provided by Santa's helper.

Lapphund Pups

From 12pm the Finnish Lapphund pups will be awaiting your attention. "Lappies" as they are affectionately known, originated in the far North of Finland working to help herd reindeer.

Sámi Sounds

Music lovers can enjoy yoik, traditional chants of the Sámi language which act as a dialogue for traditional and modern Sámi culture.

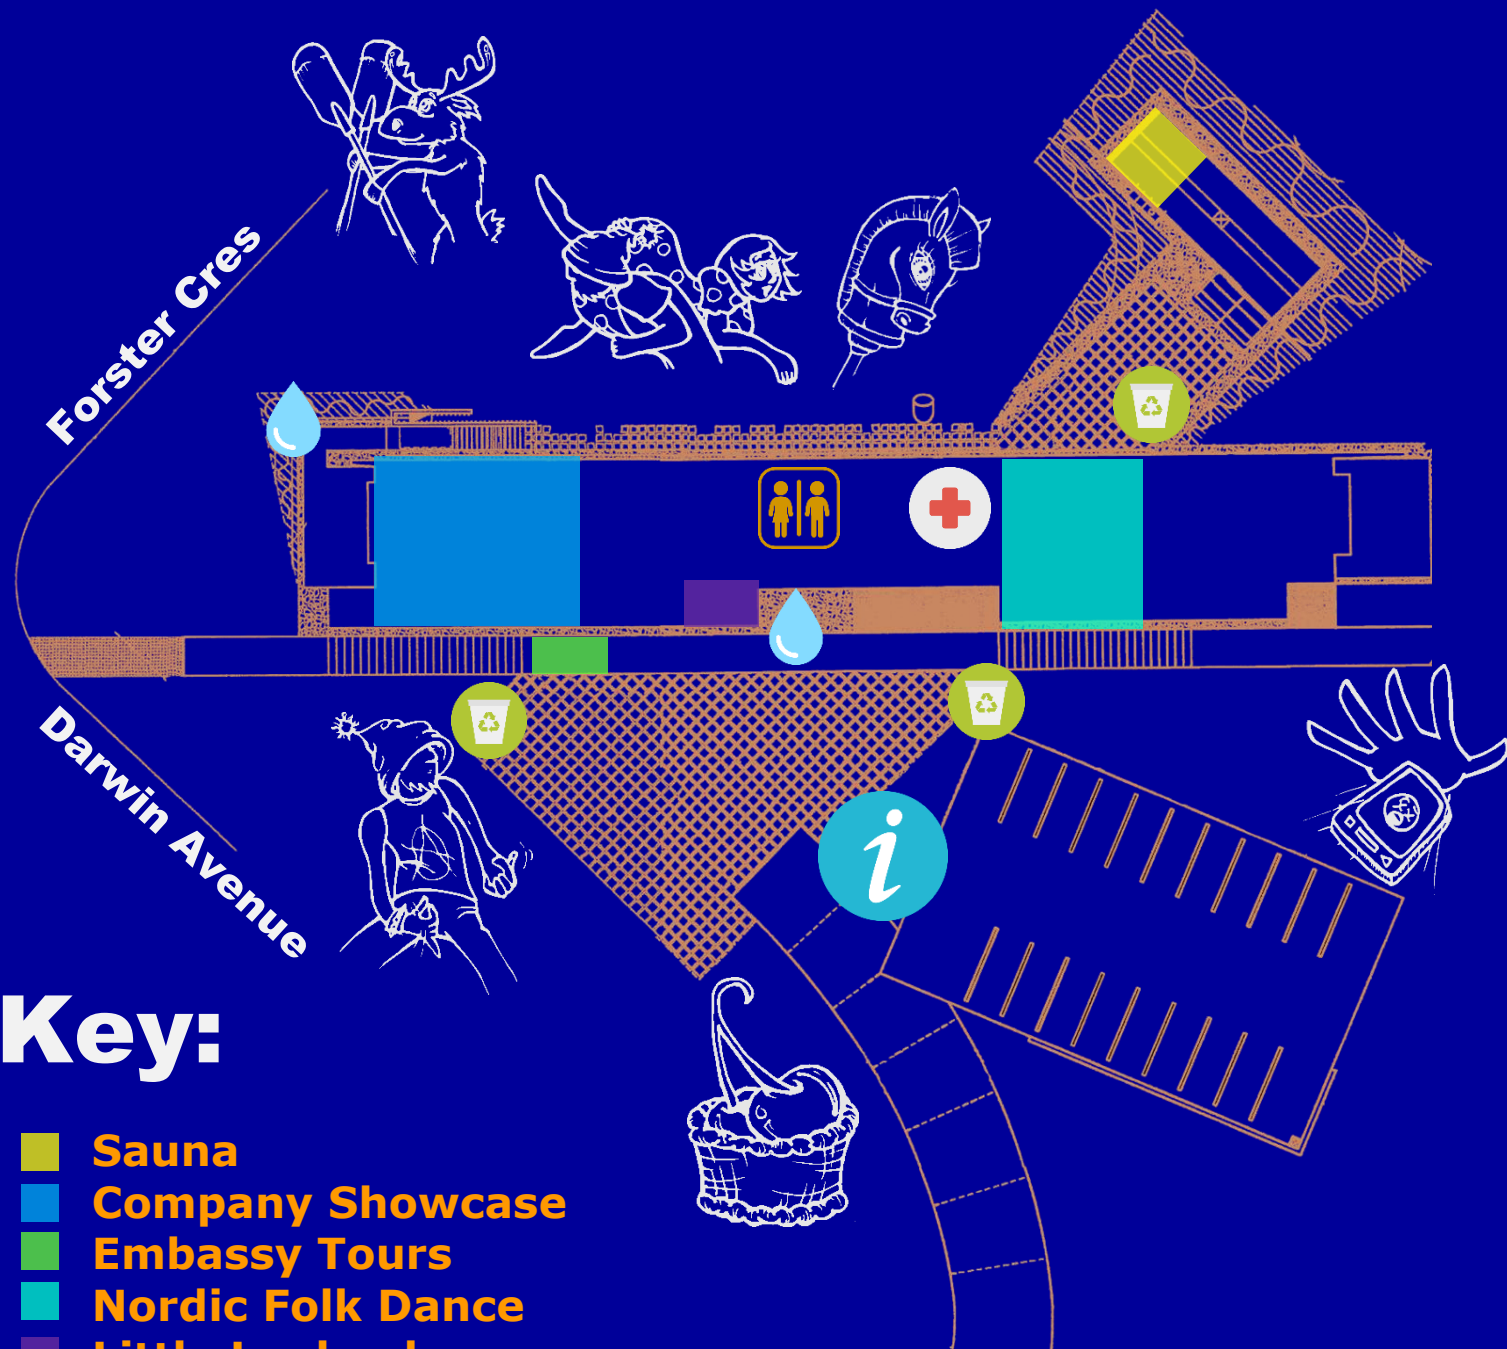

Recycle, Reuse, Reduce

As an ACTSmart Event. We ask that you please keep this guide digital to help our goal of minimising waste.

Crazy Games Map

Embassy of Finland to Australia

Major Event Partners

