“Consider the Tomb” Matthew 28:6; 27:57-60

- I. It is a costly tomb. (27:57-60)

- II. It is a borrowed tomb. (27:59-60)

- III. It is a tomb cut in a rock. (27:60)

- IV. It is a new tomb. (27:60)

- V. It is an empty tomb.

Truth and Application

1. We are reminded of the deity of King Jesus.

2. Believer, this is a sign that your redemption is complete.

3. We also have the foundation of our resurrection hope.
