Worship Notes

Today's service will focus on the main aims of the church: the gospel & the glory of God. When a church gets these two goals out of focus, that church becomes malfunctioning. We are to be about reaching others with the gospel of Jesus Christ, not to be about our desires and goals, however good they may be. Likewise, we are to have the glory of God as our aim, so even how we do evangelism is important. I've seen churches get it wrong. They aim to please men and women to grow a church numerically or they may even have the good desire to reach others with the gospel, but to entice others they water down the gospel or doctrinal truths. That doesn't glorify God, however good the motives may be!

So, let us:

1. Rejoice in the gospel! Consider the words of "Victory in Jesus." Christ "loved me ere [before] I knew Him...He plunged me to victory beneath the cleansing flood." Praise God for salvation, for "This Blood" that can "wash away my sins." We'll close our service considering the truth that "His Mercy Is More" than our sins!

2. Commit our lives to God's glory! May we glorify the Lord by living lives of gratitude: "O to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be" ("Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing").

3. Recognize that Christ is the Lord of glory and is glorified and magnified as the risen King, Lord over all! We'll sing of Christ as the One who is "high and lifted up" and "seated on the throne" ("Worthy Is the Lamb") The choir will declare: "Forever He is glorified. Forever He is lifted high. Forever He is risen. He is alive" ("Forever")!

Finally, I'd be remiss if I didn't acknowledge today as the last day that Robbie Jones will serve as the senior pastor of Tabernacle Baptist Church. He has exemplified love for God, the Scriptures, and the church. His ministry here has made TBC a better place, and I'm thankful for the 2 1/2 years the Lord allowed us to serve alongside each other. I hope everyone can stay for today's farewell luncheon following the service! Please take a moment sometime today to express your love and appreciate for Robbie, LeeAnn and the family!

Inspirational Quote for the Week
"Can you imagine every city, every neighborhood every street, and every house saturated with Jesus's presence through His people? What if, in every school, every classroom, and every extracurricular activity, students daily experienced the person and work of Jesus? Can you dream with me of a day when no business office, retail center, or industrial hub can get away from the good news of Jesus proclaimed in words and expressed in gracious deeds? A day when every cafe, restaurant, or bakery smells of the aroma of Christ?" Jeff Vanderstelt This is God's intention for His world and His plan is to do this through His Church, through His people.
