LITERARY DEVICES: STYLE

Stream of consciousness: an uninterrupted and unhindered collection of thoughts and ideas. In literature, the phrase refers to the flow of these thoughts; with reference to a character's thinking process.

Realism: a literary approach that attempts to describe life without idealization or romantic subjectivity. Chiefly concerned with the commonplaces of everyday life among the middle and lower classes, the character is a product of social factors and the environment is integral to the dramatic complications.

Bildungsroman: a novel that concentrates on the spiritual, moral, psychological, or social development and growth of the protagonist usually from childhood to maturity. Sometimes it is referred to as a Coming of Age Story.

Frame Story: A plotline that is a narrative within another narrative.
