

William Shakespeare once wrote a play called A Midsummer Night's ___(noun)__. In this play, the ___(adjective)__ Hermia falls in love with the ___(adjective)__ Lysander, but her dad wants her to marry Demetrius instead. Helena has great ___(emotion)__ for Demetrius but he is too focused on ___(verb ending in -ing)__ Hermia to notice Helena. A/n ___(adjective)__ fairy named Puck accidentally gives a love potion to Lysander which makes him ___(emotion)__ Helena, making Hermia ___(emotion)__. Trying to fix his mistake, Puck gives another love potion to Demetrius who also falls in love with the ___(adjective)__ Helena. They all get into a fight and then Puck forces them into a/n ___(adjective)__ sleep. He takes the potion off of Lysander, correcting his ___(noun)__. Finally, all the couples are in love with the right people! And they lived ___(adverb ending in -ly)__ ever after!