Visit Reflection: “Chris used his skills in both storytelling and illustration to engage students with his account of why his first book took nine years to write. His tales of perseverance and learning from his mistakes in that first book all the way to his most recent book evoked laughter, surprise, and nods of understanding from the students.”

- Caroline Karnes, PTO Enrichment Coordinator  May 16, 2018