

Job title	Senior Consultant (quantitative focus)
Summary of the post	The Senior Consultant will take complete responsibility for the management and delivery of research and evaluation projects from the inception meeting with a client through to the production of a final report. Candidates will have a background in quantitative analysis, econometrics, or evidence based evaluation.
Salary	Around £30-40k (depending on experience) plus company pension and bonus
Role and responsibilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tendering for contracts • Designing research methodologies and frameworks • Undertaking literature reviews, socio-economic analysis, etc. • Questionnaire design (qualitative and quantitative) • Undertake in-depth stakeholder interviews • Analysis and interpretation of qualitative and quantitative data • Preparing reports • Client liaison and relationship building • Contributing to business development
Requirements	Essential	Desirable
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Relevant degree and/or experience (quantitative focus) • Understanding and experience of economic impact assessment methods and identifying net additionality • Well organised, with excellent attention to detail • Ability to work effectively as an individual and/or as part of a team • Ability to lead and motivate a team of researchers • Excellent communication skills • Ability to work to and meet deadlines and maintain quality • Ability to work under pressure • Ability to travel to undertake research, meet clients, etc. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Experience of working and preparing reports for clients in the public sector • Knowledge of specialist research and analysis software • Knowledge of evaluation techniques such as logic chain models • Strong quantitative and qualitative analysis skills