

Buckley Program Honors Seminar Application

William F. Buckley, Jr. and the Rise of Modern Conservatism

Instructor: Professor Alvin S. Felzenberg

Monday, March 9th to Friday, March 13th in New Haven, CT

Course Description: This intensive, one-week seminar will cover the life and thought of William F. Buckley, Jr. and the rise of modern conservatism. The seminar is open to undergraduates. Upon successful completion, students will receive a $250 stipend.

Format: The seminar will generally include two sessions each day, one in the morning (10:00am to 12:00pm) and one in the afternoon (2:30pm to 4:30pm). Lunch will be provided daily, as well as some dinners.

Reading: There will be a moderate amount of reading for the seminar. Students will be expected to complete the reading prior to each session.

Application Instructions: Please complete this form and send it to Lauren@BuckleyProgram.com along with your resume by Friday, February 6th.

Name:

Address:

E-mail:

Phone:

University:

Class Year:

Major:

How did you hear about the seminar?

In one or two paragraphs, describe your interest in the seminar.