

ZOOM online meeting instructions

We will host an online meeting* in conjunction with the SCR MidWinter Meeting on Saturday, January 12, 2019, at 9:00 AM.

If you want to attend the meeting online, you will need to set up your computer between now and the the meeting. The “meeting room” is open. There will not be anyone “there”, but you can ensure that your computer is set up properly.

When you click on the link (see below) to the meeting, you will be prompted to download a small executable file. Click on the file, and the file will automatically, install , and take you to the “meeting room”.

 The online attendees’ audio will be muted on the live attendees’ meeting end. So, if you have a specific question, please type it into the ‘chat’, and the moderator will try their best to ask it at the appropriate time. Please refrain from typing ‘comments’ in the chat. In order to stream the video portion of the meeting, you will need a quality high speed internet connection. If your internment speed is slow, you should still have sound, even if your video quality is poor. Also, you may need ear buds.*
