FESTIVAL GUESTS OF HONOUR

It is our great privilege to welcome actress Tatsuya Fujiwara, who has been a key figure in the New Wave cinema of Japan since the 1980s, and director Sergei Loznitsa, whose work has explored the complexities of the Soviet Union and its legacy in ways that challenge our understanding of history and power.

TAEWANSE CINEMA PROGRAMME

TSAI MING-LIANG

Lee Kang-Sheng (b.1968 in Taipei, Taiwan). Lee is an actor, filmmaker and programmer with a particular interest in the New Taiwanese New Wave cinema. He is known for his austere and humanistic exploration of family, life, and the City of Athens Award at the Ljubljana International Film Festival, 2018.

LEIGH SILK

Lee has won many prizes with The River (1997) and The Isle (1999), and for films made in his native Malaysia such as Don’t Want To Sleep Alone (2006); his latest film, Neon Gods, won several awards including the KNF Award, the NETF 2018 Award, the Tiger Award at the Rotterdam International Film Festival 2018; and The Deserted, winner of the Grand Jury Prize at the Locarno International Film Festival 2018.

The East Asia Film Festival would like to thank all its partners and sponsors.

Funding & Cultural Partners

Cinematheque du Canada

Dublin City Council

Screen South East

Festival Venue

Taoiseach’s Office Dublin City Council

