

You are invited to join us at the Music at St Mary's Choral Workshop
Handel's Messiah - Hallelujah!
Saturday 21st July

When?

Workshop from 13:00 - 17:30 including breaks (please arrive 12:45)

Tea with sandwiches & cake - 16:00 to 16:45

Informal performance - 18:30 to 19:40

Where?

St Mary's Church, Northchurch. Access for cars via the school entrance off New Road. The car park is to the rear of the church.

What should I bring?

A score – either Prout or Clifford Bartlett editions. If you are hiring a copy please ensure you have booked this in advance. Payment by cheque or cash (correct money please) - £12/person and under 18s are free. Discounts for multi-family bookings on request. Music hire: £3/copy. Bring a spill-proof water container!

What are we singing?

A selection of choruses and solos performed by 'sections'. The best will be performed in the evening to our families and friends!

Refreshments

St Mary's church choir and friends will provide a high tea during the afternoon, with hot and cold drinks, sandwiches and cakes.

Toilets

Toilets available in the Parish Rooms with disability access.

Informal performance

Please invite your families and friends to this informal event. In addition to the selected choruses, Madalina Tudoran will sing two soprano solos and Richard Carr will perform an organ interlude to complete the programme.

Evening reception

Wine, soft drinks and light refreshments will be served in the chancel after the performance. Free entry – donations encouraged. Please advise of approximate numbers for catering and seating planning.
