Profile

Cuban artist, born in Havana City on September 22, 1968.

Born into a family where she enjoys the privilege of having a father sculptor and as an older brother, a painter, sculptor and ceramist, this means that from her childhood she was surrounded by brushes, colors, clay, lathes, ebony, ivory and gouges.

My first school: (my house).

I began to feel positively influenced from my first months of life, when my father confessed:

"This is my daughter, my masterpiece."

I studied at the San Alejandro School of Fine Arts (1994).

I have participated in several collective and personal exhibitions over the years, with awards and mentions in different events and contests.
