

International Accountmanager Renewable Energy Events – Rotterdam

Introductie

Fast growing international solar energy events organiser is looking for an account manager. Their events attract companies from all over the world, to present the latest technological developments to investors. They have organised over 100 events across all continents in the last 15 years. While contributing to impressive energy projects, their main goal is to help the energy transition obtain critical mass.

The company currently employs 30 people of 10 different nationalities and the main language is English. Employees are well educated, driven and highly ambitious. The account manager will be responsible for several large events each year and manage all sponsorships for these events. Will travel to own events at least 4 times per year. Events are aimed at companies invested in sustainability and renewable energy. Core competencies include excellent networking and communication skills as you will be liaising with marketing managers and directors. You have the stamina of a professional athlete when it comes to acquisition.
