Shawn,

Congratulations on your retirement! It was an honor for me to serve alongside you and share in the experience as brothers in arms have shared since before recorded history. You were a role model for your Soldiers, peers, superiors, and me. You always had the best interest of your Soldiers at heart, and I always knew that no matter what was happening you were making tough ethical and moral decisions to care for them and support the Army's mission to defend the constitution. You are everything an Officer of the Army should be, and while I will miss seeing you in uniform, I will always count you as my brother.

I look forward to seeing what success lies in store for you in the future. I know you are destined to be in the thick of the fight, making great things happen. Best wishes.

Warmest Regards,

Tony L. Wright
