The U.S. Department of Justice identifies the Council on American Islamic Relations (CAIR) as the 4th Islamic organization created by the U.S. Muslim Brotherhood's Palestine Committee, which is Hamas in the United States. In the December 2007 government filing in the US v Sabri Benkhala terrorism case appeal (Eastern District of Virginia), the U.S. government stated: "From its founding by the Muslim Brotherhood leaders, CAIR conspired with other affiliates of the Muslim Brotherhood to support terrorists." Because of CAIR's ties to the designated terrorist organization Hamas, the FBI suspended all formal contact with them.
