Training Methods Used

The course is down to earth in its approach and practical in its objectives; sessions are lively and thought provoking, using— lectures, workshops, group discussions, formal presentations, applied use of case studies and problem-solving activities.

We hope to provide trainees not only with ideas for discussion, but also with a list of action points to prepare for a wide range of situations.

What will be covered?

- ◆ The general structure of Supported Housing
- ◆ Groups of vulnerable people and their needs (Mental Health, Homelessness, Drugs/Alcohol Abuse and Learning Difficulties etc.)
- ◆ Types of housing
- ◆ The Housing Acts (Rent arrears, Voids, Maintenance, Tenure and possession procedures,)
- ◆ Mental Health Awareness
- ◆ Community Care Act 1990 (Motivating tenants, Tenants participation and representation, Move-on and resettlement)
- ◆ Welfare Benefits, Education & Training
- ◆ Health & Safety
- ◆ Protection of Vulnerable Adults Awareness
- ◆ Job Hunting Tips - including CV writing
- ◆ Role Plays (to practice putting your newly honed skills into action)

Feedback

We gather feedback from all of our trainees after each course we run. This is important to us to ensure that we are consistently improving, and reaching the needs of our trainees.

Our Success Story

Our course outline and approach has given our trainees the skills and knowledge needed to best support the vulnerable groups in our community, meeting and exceeding sector expectations. At the end of the course, we award a certificate to successful trainees.

Depending on candidate preference – ad-hoc, contract and temporary placements into various specialist projects within Supported Housing are offered as soon as they become available.

We also offer extensive support to those that are new to Supported Housing projects so that they can get ahead in achieving their desired goals.
