

Lace!!

I know you are super busy!! & working & juggling 😊

I am expanding my team - looking to partner with 2 Bossbabes

I understand the business may not be a fit for you, but of course would love to partner with you!

I absolutely respect you and you are a SMART women! & know how awesome Arbonne is. . .
You may know of someone?

Are you open to connect for a 20 min overview (can be in person or virtual) would mean so much!!

Hi XYZ!!

I know we haven't connected in a while but I have some exciting news. Recently I started consulting for this amazing company and when I think of people I want to share this with you come to mind because of XYZ. The last year has been life changing and I would feel so guilty not sharing this with you. We have a fun meeting this week and I would love for you to come as my guest.

It's Tuesday at 7pm...can you be my guest??

Hi Jenny!!

Hope you are fab I wanted to reach out - I have just started my own business with Arbonne

International. An amazing vegan health & wellness company. I've used and loved their products for forever & have decided to build a business

I really see it as MY answer - be home with babes & still have some choices financially

I am excited!! & nervous

As part of my training I need to find 10 people who are willing to hear a 20 min overview of Arbonne

I totally get it may not be a fit for you personally & I totally respect that. I need a set of ears. Absolutely no obligation... would you be willing to be one of my 10?

It would mean the world to me!!
