

Ethics of Teletherapy and Social Media

Presented by: Richard Layne, MA, LPC, TIC

This presentation is about the growing presence of social media and how social media relates to Teletherapy. The presentation looks at ethical considerations of social media and Tele-therapy. It will also introduce participants to both State of Texas regulations and Federal regulations.

Date: Tuesday, October 17, 2017

Time: 11:00 AM – 2:00 PM

Location: Concorde Career College 4803 NW Loop 410, Suite 200 San Antonio

Cost: Free for SAAMFT Members and Subscribers

$50 for Non-Members

$10 for students (with CEU certificate)

$5 for students (without certificate)

About the Presenter:

Richard Layne, MA, LPC, TIC

Graduated from UTSA with an MA in counseling in 2000 and has had his private practice since 2002.

His focus is client centered. Richard believes Counseling is about the client and not the counselor and helps clients develop skills collaboratively to alleviate anxiety, depression, grief, trauma, and other symptoms.

To learn more about Richard and his work, please check his website www.omnilaynecounseling.com

RSVP in the website www.saamft.org or email: saamft.secretary@gmail.com