CONTRIBUTIONS GUIDELINES

- Contributions Drawn on Joint Accounts: Contributions from joint account holders will be attributed to the individual whose signature appears on the check. Joint account checks can be attributed to multiple account holders. In such case, joint account checks will be attributed equally to those joint account holders whose names and signatures appear on the check, on this form [Name(s)], or are provided with accompanying documentation.
- Contributions Drawn on the Account of a Partnership or LLC: State law requires that a contribution drawn upon the account of a partnership or limited liability company must be signed by the contributing partner(s)/member(s) or must be accompanied by a letter allocating the contribution to the specific partner(s)/member(s). If the contribution is attributed to more than one partner to whom a portion of a contribution is to be attributed to more than one partner/member, each partner/member to whom a portion of a contributions is to be attributed must sign the contribution check or an allocation letter accompanying the contribution.
