

THE FRANK VIGILANTE SCHOLARSHIP IN MEMORY OF JOHN FISCHETTI 2018

Applications are now being accepted for the Frank Vigilante Scholarship In Memory of John Fischetti. This award is offered annually by the Joint Civic Committee of Italian Americans, exclusively to male students of Italian ancestry who are majoring in journalism or media communications.

HISTORY

John Fischetti was a Pulitzer Prize-winning editorial cartoonist whose work for many years graced the pages of the New York Herald Tribune, the Chicago Daily News and the Chicago Sun Times. He was also a man whose enthusiasm for life and generosity of spirit won him many friends.

PREREQUISITES

Eligible scholarship applicants must be male students of full Italian ancestry or who are 50% Italian ancestry who are either undergraduates in journalism or communication; a high school student who has been accepted into college with the intent of establishing a major in journalism or media communications. Scholarship Award is $2,000.00 and is available only for residents of the Chicago metropolitan area.

REQUIREMENTS

All applicants must submit a typewritten essay of 500 words on any of the following topics:

What does being an Italian American mean to you?

How do you feel about the way Italian Americans are portrayed in movies & television?

What contributions have Italians (ancient or modern) made to the world?

What contributions have Italian Americans made to the United States?

In addition, please include a photo of yourself, a copy of your transcripts plus a published work. Published work in a school newspaper is acceptable. Applications, together with the required documents must be returned to the offices of the Joint Civic Committee of Italian Americans no later than May 14, 2018.

*The Frank Vigilante Scholarship In Memory of John Fischetti recipient will be presented with the award at the Dante Award Luncheon which honors members of Chicago's news media who best exemplifies Dante's ideal of "being no timid friend to truth." This annual event will be held on Thursday, May 24, 2018 at Galleria Marchetti, 825 West Erie Street, Chicago. This event is attended by many of Chicago's well-known print, radio and television journalists. Scholarship recipient must attend the luncheon to receive the award personally.
