3. WELCOME TO BOULOGNE/MER

A stone's throw from the Channel Tunnel, two hours from Paris and at the heart of Côte d'Opale and the Boulonnais Natural park, a welcoming region of rolling hills. Boulogne sur mer has the power to astonish and seduce those who've never visited before....

Rich in his heritage which gives it the enviable title « Ville d'art et d'histoire », the Upper Town bears witness in stone with a 12th century belfry, superb 13th century ramparts, a Château-Musée not to be missed, an imposing cathedral and a medieval crypt.

City of the sea : Nausicaa Sea Center offers a fantastic trip to the depths of the oceans and reminds us that Boulogne also France's premier fishing port with fish cook appreciated by all gourmets.
