Below is a list of possible motivational strategies that some teachers use to motivate their learners. We would like to ask you to decide about each strategy how often you have used it in your own teaching practice. Thank you for your help!

Please mark a tick (✓) in the appropriate blank on the continuum between ‘Hardly ever’ to ‘Very often’ (e.g. ___: ___: ___: ___: ___: __). Please only tick one space and answer all the questions.

1. Bring in and encourage humour and laughter frequently in your class. Hardly ever __: __: __: __: __: Very often
2. Show students that you respect, accept and care about each of them. Hardly ever __: __: __: __: __: Very often
3. Create opportunities so that students can mix and get to know each other better (e.g. group work, game-like competition). Hardly ever __: __: __: __: __: Very often
4. Familiarize the learners with the cultural background of the English language. Hardly ever __: __: __: __: __: Very often
5. Explain the importance of the ‘class rules’ that you regard as important (e.g. let’s not make fun of each other’s mistakes) and how these rules enhance learning, and then ask for the students’ agreement. Hardly ever __: __: __: __: __: Very often
6. Give clear instructions about how to carry out a task by modelling every step that students will need to do. Hardly ever __: __: __: __: __: Very often
7. Invite senior students who are enthusiastic about learning English to talk to your class about their positive English learning experiences/successes. Hardly ever __: __: __: __: __: Very often
8. Monitor students’ accomplishments, and take time to celebrate any success or victory. Hardly ever __: __: __: __: __: Very often
9. Regularly remind students that the successful mastery of English is beneficial to their future (e.g. getting a better job or pursuing further studies abroad). Hardly ever __: __: __: __: __: Very often
10. Encourage students to select specific, realistic and short-term learning goals for themselves (e.g. learning 5 words every day). Hardly ever __: __: __: __: __: Very often
11. Design tasks that are within the learners’ ability so that they get to experience success regularly. Hardly ever __: __: __: __: __: Very often
12. Introduce in your lessons various interesting content and topics which students are likely to find interesting (e.g. about TV programmes, pop stars or travelling). Hardly ever __: __: __: __: __: Very often
13. Make tasks challenging by including some activities that require students to solve problems or discover something (e.g. puzzles). Hardly ever __: __: __: __: __: Very often
14. Teach the students self-motivating strategies (e.g. self-encouragement) so as to keep them motivated when they encounter distractions. Hardly ever __: __: __: __: __: Very often
15. Make sure grades reflect not only the students’ achievement but also the effort they have put into the task. Hardly ever __: __: __: __: __: Very often
16. Ask learners to think of any classroom rules that they would like to recommend because they think those will be useful for their learning. Hardly ever __: __: __: __: __: Very often
17. Show your enthusiasm for teaching English by being committed and motivating yourself.

18. Break the routine of the lessons by varying presentation format (e.g. a grammar task can be followed by one focusing on pronunciation; a whole-class lecture can be followed by group work).

19. Invite some English-speaking foreigners as guest speakers to the class.

20. Help the students develop realistic beliefs about their learning (e.g. explain to them realistically the amount of time needed for making real progress in English).

21. Use short and interesting opening activities to start each class (e.g. fun games).

22. Involve students as much as possible in designing and running the language course (e.g. provide them with opportunities to select the textbooks; make real choices about the activities and topics they are going to cover; decide whom they would like to work with).

23. Establish a good relationship with your students.

24. Encourage student participation by assigning activities that require active involvement from each participant (e.g. group presentation or peer teaching).

25. Give good reasons to students as to why a particular activity is meaningful or important.

26. Try and find out about your students’ needs, goals and interests, and then build these into your curriculum as much as possible.

27. Allow students to create products that they can display or perform (e.g. a poster, an information brochure or a radio programme).

28. Encourage learners to try harder by making it clear that you believe that they can do the tasks.

29. Give students choices in deciding how and when they will be assessed/evaluated.

30. Create a supportive and pleasant classroom climate where students are free from embarrassment and ridicule.

31. Display the ‘class goals’ on the wall and review them regularly in terms of the progress made towards them.

32. Bring various authentic cultural products (e.g. magazines, newspapers or song lyrics) to class as supplementary materials.

33. Make clear to students that the important thing in learning a foreign language is to communicate meaning effectively rather than worrying about grammar mistakes.

34. Notice students’ contributions and progress, and provide them with positive feedback.

35. Include activities that require students to work in groups towards the same goal (e.g. plan a drama performance) in order to promote cooperation.

There are more items on the next page.
36. Teach students various learning techniques that will make their learning easier and more effective.

37. Adopt the role of a ‘facilitator’ (i.e. Your role would be to help and lead your students to think and learn in their own way, instead of solely giving knowledge to them).

38. Highlight the usefulness of English and encourage your students to use their English outside the classroom (e.g. internet chat room or English speaking pen-friends).

39. Motivate your students by increasing the amount of English you use in class.

40. Share with students that you value English learning as a meaningful experience that produces satisfaction and which enriches your life.

41. Avoid ‘social comparison’ amongst your students (i.e. comparing them to each other for example when listing their grades in public).

42. Encourage learners to see that the main reason for most failure is that they did not make sufficient effort rather than their poor abilities.

43. Make tasks attractive by including novel or fantasy elements so as to raise the learners’ curiosity.

44. Encourage students to share personal experiences and thoughts as part of the learning tasks.

45. Enrich the channel of communication by presenting various auditory and visual aids such as pictures, realia, tapes and films.

46. Show students that their effort and achievement are being recognized by you.

47. Try to be yourself in front of students without putting on an artificial ‘mask’, and share with them your hobbies, likes and dislikes.

48. Give students opportunities to assess themselves (e.g. give themselves marks according to their overall performance).

Finally, would you please answer the following short questions:

1. What’s your gender? Male _____ Female _____

2. How long have you been teaching English (in months/years)? _____

3. Where do you teach? (you may tick more than one category)
   - university/college
   - senior high school
   - junior high school
   - vocational school
   - elementary school
   - cram school
   - private lessons
   - others

4. Have you ever studied abroad? If so where and how long?

5. Which region do you work in? _________
   - A. Taipei
   - B. North (without Taipei)
   - C. Centre
   - D. South

6. In what sort of place is the school you teach? _______
   - A. city
   - B. town
   - C. village

If you have any questions about the survey or are interested to learn more about the results, please contact the researcher: Cheng, Hsing-Fu (Lilian).

E-mail: ............................................

Thank you very much for your kind help and participation. We appreciate it!
Below is a list of motivational strategies for motivating language learners. We would like to ask you to decide about each strategy how important you believe it is in your class. Please note that we are asking your opinion about the potential importance of the techniques even if at present you don’t use them. Many thanks!

Please mark a tick ( ) in the appropriate blank on the continuum between ‘Not important’ to ‘Very important’ (e.g. __: __: __: __: __: __). Please only tick one space and answer all the questions.

1. Bring in and encourage humour and laughter frequently in your class.

2. Show students that you respect, accept and care about each of them.

3. Create opportunities so that students can mix and get to know each other better (e.g. group work, game-like competition).

4. Familiarize the learners with the cultural background of the English language.

5. Explain the importance of the ‘class rules’ that you regard as important (e.g. let’s not make fun of each other’s mistakes) and how these rules enhance learning, and then ask for the students’ agreement.

6. Give clear instructions about how to carry out a task by modelling every step that students will need to do.

7. Invite senior students who are enthusiastic about learning English to talk to your class about their positive English learning experiences/successes.

8. Monitor students’ accomplishments, and take time to celebrate any success or victory.

9. Regularly remind students that the successful mastery of English is beneficial to their future (e.g. getting a better job or pursuing further studies abroad).

10. Encourage students to select specific, realistic and short-term learning goals for themselves (e.g. learning 5 words every day).

11. Design tasks that are within the learners’ ability so that they get to experience success regularly.

12. Introduce in your lessons various interesting content and topics which students are likely to find interesting (e.g. about TV programmes, pop stars or travelling).

13. Make tasks challenging by including some activities that require students to solve problems or discover something (e.g. puzzles).

14. Teach the students self-motivating strategies (e.g. self-encouragement) so as to keep them motivated when they encounter distractions.

15. Make sure grades reflect not only the students’ achievement but also the effort they have put into the task.

16. Ask learners to think of any classroom rules that they would like to recommend because they think those will be useful for their learning.
17. Show your enthusiasm for teaching English by being committed and motivating yourself.

18. Break the routine of the lessons by varying presentation format (e.g. a grammar task can be followed by one focusing on pronunciation; a whole-class lecture can be followed by group work).

19. Invite some English-speaking foreigners as guest speakers to the class.

20. Help the students develop realistic beliefs about their learning (e.g. explain to them realistically the amount of time needed for making real progress in English).

21. Use short and interesting opening activities to start each class (e.g. fun games).

22. Involve students as much as possible in designing and running the language course (e.g. provide them with opportunities to select the textbooks; make real choices about the activities and topics they are going to cover; decide whom they would like to work with).

23. Establish a good relationship with your students.

24. Encourage student participation by assigning activities that require active involvement from each participant (e.g. group presentation or peer teaching).

25. Give good reasons to students as to why a particular activity is meaningful or important.

26. Try and find out about your students’ needs, goals and interests, and then build these into your curriculum as much as possible.

27. Allow students to create products that they can display or perform (e.g. a poster, an information brochure or a radio programme).

28. Encourage learners to try harder by making it clear that you believe that they can do the tasks.

29. Give students choices in deciding how and when they will be assessed/evaluated.

30. Create a supportive and pleasant classroom climate where students are free from embarrassment and ridicule.

31. Display the ‘class goals’ on the wall and review them regularly in terms of the progress made towards them.

32. Bring various authentic cultural products (e.g. magazines, newspapers or song lyrics) to class as supplementary materials.

33. Make clear to students that the important thing in learning a foreign language is to communicate meaning effectively rather than worrying about grammar mistakes.

34. Notice students’ contributions and progress, and provide them with positive feedback.

35. Include activities that require students to work in groups towards the same goal (e.g. plan a drama performance) in order to promote cooperation.

There are more items on the next page
36. Teach students various learning techniques that will make their learning easier and more effective.

37. Adopt the role of a ‘facilitator’ (i.e. Your role would be to help and lead your students to think and learn in their own way, instead of solely giving knowledge to them).

38. Highlight the usefulness of English and encourage your students to use their English outside the classroom (e.g. internet chat room or English speaking pen-friends).

39. Motivate your students by increasing the amount of English you use in class.

40. Share with students that you value English learning as a meaningful experience that produces satisfaction and which enriches your life.

41. Avoid ‘social comparison’ amongst your students (i.e. comparing them to each other for example when listing their grades in public).

42. Encourage learners to see that the main reason for most failure is that they did not make sufficient effort rather than their poor abilities.

43. Make tasks attractive by including novel or fantasy elements so as to raise the learners’ curiosity.

44. Encourage students to share personal experiences and thoughts as part of the learning tasks.

45. Enrich the channel of communication by presenting various auditory and visual aids such as pictures, realia, tapes and films.

46. Show students that their effort and achievement are being recognized by you.

47. Try to be yourself in front of students without putting on an artificial ‘mask’, and share with them your hobbies, likes and dislikes.

48. Give students opportunities to assess themselves (e.g. give themselves marks according to their overall performance).

Finally, would you please answer the following short questions:

1. What’s your gender? Male _____ Female _____

2. How long have you been teaching English (in years/months)? _____

3. Where do you teach? (you may tick more than one category)
   _____ university/college
   _____ senior high school
   _____ junior high school
   _____ vocational school
   _____ elementary school
   _____ cram school
   _____ private lessons
   _____ others

4. Have you ever studied abroad? If so where and how long? _____

5. Which region do you work in? _____
   A. Taipei  B. North (without Taipei)  C. Centre  D. South

6. In what sort of place is the school you teach? _____
   A. city  B. town  C. village

If you have any questions about the survey or are interested to learn more about the results, please contact the researcher: Cheng, Hsing-Fu (Lilian).

E-mail: ..............................................

Thank you very much for your kind help and participation.
We appreciate it.