For each Sunday and solemnity/feast, the liturgical function is listed first; the corresponding day in the current liturgical calendar is on the left, and the equivalent day in the old calendar on the right. Then follows the title of the chant, relevant office number in L'Orgue Mystique, page number in the Graduale Romanum of 1974, and suggested starting pitch to match Tournemire's setting. For the final pieces, the chants are listed with their function in the current liturgical calendar.
