Absence Policy

All class participants must attend the orientation and reception. Though participants are expected to attend all sessions, provisions have been made for absences. Absence from up to two classes will be excused and graduation still allowed. Absence from more than two sessions disqualifies a candidate for graduation.

EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCE APPEALS PROCESS

A written request may be submitted to the Steering Committee for consideration of graduation from the program. The Steering Committee would render a decision in all such cases on a case by case basis.

DEFERRED GRADUATION

An absence of greater than two sessions, but not more than half of the program may be made up by attending those class sessions in the following year. Upon satisfactory completion of the make-up sessions, those participants would receive their plaque.

Attendance will be taken at the beginning and end of each class.

Attendance at sessions benefits you and the group in general. Your attendance and participation are important to you, the rest of your class members and the integrity of the program. Attendance is measured by participation for entire sessions.

BOTTOM LINE: Your attendance and ultimate graduation from this elite program are your responsibility!
